CALLED A CONVENTION.

Lord's Day Alliance Will Meet in Toronto on Monday Next.

A special convention of the Ontario Lord's Day Alliance has been called to meet on Monday next, at 2.30 p.m., in the Bible House, 102 Yonge-street. The object is the consideration of a recommendation of the Executive Board in favor of an immediate effort to secure the services, as general secretary for Ontario and associate secretary for Canada, of a colleague of Rev. J. G. Shearer. This step is considered necessary partly because of the marvelous growth of the organization, and partly because of the recent judgment of the Court of Appeal, upholding provincial jurisdiction to legislate for the protection of the Lord's Day, which opens the way for an effort to have the present Lord's Day Act amended at the next session of the legislative assembly.

INTEREST TO TRAVELERS.

Editor World: The corporation of the City of Quebec have at present under consideration a bylaw named "Bylaw No. 377," concerning commercial travelers. The name is somewhat misleading, which has caused many enquiries to be made to our association from wholesale merchants and commercial travelers regarding the same. From information I have received the bylaw referred to is simply intended to be levied on travelers doing a retail business in the City of Quebec, to the detriment of the local trade, and will not affect commercial travelers acting in the usual way as intermediaries between wholesale firms or manufacturing establishments, and the city trade. The class of travelers the bylaw is aimed at are those who take orders from the consumer, and travelers of this kind are not eligible or accepted as members of the Commercial Travelers' Associations of Canada.

THEY OPENED A BLIND POLL

Conservatives of Bancroft, Hastings County, Were Kept in the Dark About It.

THEIR CANDIDATE NOT REPRESENTED

He Got 21 Votes Out of the Box, But 38 Make Affidavit They Voted for Him.

Bancroft is a small village in the Township of Faraday, in North Hastings, and it was the scene of wholesale corruption at the last election, according to a gentleman who was in town yesterday. He says that heretofore the poll for the township has always been held in Bancroft. On the morning of the last elections, however, between 9 and 10 o'clock, it was reported in the village that a second poll had been opened there. No proclamation, as far as could be ascertained, was issued specifying the location of the polls in the riding, by the returning officer.

When the Conservatives heard that a blind poll had been opened, they hurried around, and, after a time, succeeded in finding it. A private banker, who is a Conservative, found that he was entitled to vote at the blind poll, and he presented himself there, received a ballot and voted. He then informed the deputy returning officer, Mr. Harriet, who, by the way, was the Liberal candidate for North Hastings in the election of 1900, of his intention of remaining in the poll as Conservative scrutineer, which he was entitled to do, as he was a voter in the polling subdivision. The deputy returning officer demanded from him his authority to act, and he replied that the act gave him the necessary authority.

The deputy returning officer then ordered the banker out of the poll, but he refused to go, and the constable was instructed to put him out. In the meantime, word was sent to the other poll for a copy of the Election Act, and the banker turned up the clause which entitled him to act as scrutineer, and asked Mr. Harriet to read it. He refused, and the constable took the banker by the arm and led him out.

He then went to the other poll and secured a certificate in blank, signed by the Conservative candidate, authorizing persons to act as agent or scrutineer for him. The banker's name was inserted in the blank, but the number of the polling sub-division was not put in, for the simple reason that no Conservative in the village could find out what number should be inserted for the blind poll.

Returning with this written authority, the banker was asked by the deputy returning officer who filled it in, and received the answer that it was no concern of his. Again he was ordered to leave, and again he refused. The constable took hold of him, and, as he refused to budge, he was carried out bodily.

From that time to the close of the poll no Conservative scrutineer was present, and the Conservatives of the village think that 50 Conservatives at least voted there. The deputy returning officer, however, reported that only 21 Conservative votes were cast, while 38 Conservatives offer to take their affidavit that they voted at the blind poll. Some interesting developments are expected.

JUNE WEDDINGS.

The residence of James I. Scott, 377 Davenport-road, was the scene of a pretty wedding yesterday afternoon, the participants being Miss Christina M. Scott and W. A. Rowland, formerly of Hamilton. Rev. Mr. Stephen of the Church of the Covenant officiated. The bride was given away by her father. She was attended by her sister, Miss Olive Scott, and James Rowland was best man. After the wedding a reception was held.

Fowler—Custance.

Rev. A. J. Broughall of St. Stephen's Church officiated at the wedding of Miss Annie C. Custance, daughter of Chas. C. Custance, and Wilkie G. Fowler of the Winnipeg Rubber Co., Winnipeg. The ceremony was held at 186 Lippincott-street and was attended by a large number of friends. The bride was assisted by Miss Bertha Custance, while Geo. Worthington was best man. A reception followed the wedding.

Dickson—Hilliar.

Miss Isabella Hilliar, daughter of Geo. P. Hilliar of Osgoode Hall, was married to James Dickson, barrister, of Hamilton. Rev. Dr. Armstrong Black tied the nuptial knot at the home of the bride's parents, University-avenue. The bridesmaid was Miss Ethel Rogers, and Norman Slater of Hamilton was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Dickson will reside at 120 Duke-street, Hamilton.

Mansfield in "Beaucaire."

The best promise of the season is the coming of Mansfield, and he will be here on Tuesday night next in his great new hit, "Beaucaire." This is a comedy of the most attractive character, with a role of the foppish, elegant, witty sort that everyone likes so well to see Mansfield portray. Mansfield has been called the modern David Garrick. What are the points of resemblance? David Garrick was the greatest actor of his period. He was not great in one role or one kind of role. His genius shone with equal radiance in comedy or tragedy, in farce or characterization. He was a manager as well as an actor, and wrote prose and verse that had much charm. Cannot all this be said of Richard Mansfield? The advance sale for the engagement opens this morning at the Princess Theatre.

A Pill For Generous Eaters.—There are many persons of healthy appetite and poor digestion, who, after a hearty meal, are subject to much suffering. The food of which they have partaken lies like lead in their stomachs. Headache, depression, a smothering feeling follow. One so afflicted is unfit for business or work of any kind. In this condition Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will bring relief. They will assist the assimilation of the aliment, and, used according to direction, will restore healthy digestion.

Names of New Townships.

The new townships that are to be surveyed in the Temiskaming country are to be named after several Liberal members of the legislature. For instance, the names of Tudhope and Davidson, who redeemed two of the Simcoes, will go down to posterity, as will also the names of Truax and Gross. Others are Lundy and Cane, two citizens of Newmarket and St. Catharines.

INTERCESSION FOR THE KING.

Special Services Held Yesterday in Many Churches.

In a number of the churches yesterday, special intercessory services were held, invoking divine mercy on behalf of the King in his present serious illness.

In St. James' Cathedral a large number assembled to take part in the service, among whom were many business men and young men and women employed in the down-town factories and stores. The gathering sang Rev. John Gurney's hymn of supplication, "Great King of Nations, Hear Our Prayer." This was followed by the litany, in which special petitions were offered for the recovery of the King and for divine strength to sustain him in his sufferings. A prayer was also offered by Rev. Canon Welch on behalf of the Queen. After the singing of William Cowper's hymn, "God Moves in a Mysterious Way His Wonders to Perform," the benediction was pronounced. Dr. Ham presided at the organ.

Rev. Canon Cayley officiated at the service in St. Paul's Church, East Bloor-street. There was a large congregation. The usual prayers were offered, and the congregation sang "Oh God, Our Help in Ages Past," and "God Moves in a Mysterious Way His Wonders to Perform."

The Baptists held a service in the Sunday school hall of Jarvis-street Baptist Church. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Thomas, prayed that God's blessing rest upon the stricken sovereign and that His Majesty might be restored to health. Short addresses touching on the life of the King were made by Rev. P. C. Parker, Rev. W. J. Scott, Rev. Dr. Stewart, Rev. Dr. Weeks, Rev. Mr. Warnicker and Rev. Mr. King.

A large congregation attended the service in Knox Church. Rev. Alexander McGillivray, Moderator of Toronto Presbytery, presided. The Doxology was sung, after which Rev. Mr. McGillivray asked for the blessing of Almighty God upon the stricken sovereign. The psalm, "The Lord is My Shepherd," was sung, and a portion of Scripture was read by Rev. A. B. Winchester. Another prayer was offered by Rev. W. G. Wallace, after which Rev. Principal Caven made a short address. Thirty years ago, he said, the great British empire prayed for the then Prince of Wales' restoration when was ill, that he might be a help and a comfort to his illustrious mother. Rev. Drs. McKay and Parsons delivered short prayers, and the Doxology was sung. After the benediction, the service concluded.

ANOTHER PROTEST.

Bookbinders' Union Object to Use of Patrols to Move Non-Union Men.

At a meeting of the International Brotherhood of Bookbinders the following resolution was adopted:

"Whereas: Local Union No. 28, International Brotherhood of Bookbinders, in session assembled, having learned that the city patrol wagons were used to convey men brought to the city by the Toronto Railway Co. for the purpose of taking the places of the striking employes, to the various barns of the aforesaid street railway company, and believing that the men who deemed it wise to strike for better conditions are good, law-abiding citizens, and who are contributing to the tax rate of our city, and therefore deserving of civic consideration, be it resolved: That we do most emphatically protest against any use being made of our patrol wagons other than that for which they were purchased. And that we also protest against the uncalled-for action of our authorities in calling out the militia. That copies of this resolution be forwarded to the city council and also the press for publication.

FRESH AIR FUND.

Editor World: Kindly allow me just a few words to reply to the question asked in this morning's World by "An other Enquirer," as to whether the five "Fresh Air Funds," at present in existence, could not be amalgamated. The Toronto Fresh Air Fund, of which I have the honor to be treasurer, is now in its ninth year, and as far as I know, the oldest in the field; but we are quite willing to amalgamate, or we will be perfectly satisfied to hand over the work, if an undertaking is given, that it will be done better than we are doing it now. H. C. Dixon,
Treasurer Toronto Fresh Air Fund.

Want the Mayor Censured.

The following resolution has been adopted by The Allied Printing Trades Council:

"The Allied Printing Trades Council in meeting assembled declare that the action of the mayor in calling out the militia in the late street railway strike is worthy of the strongest condemnation, as being entirely unnecessary under the circumstances, and to that end it is hereby resolved that this council enter their most emphatic protest against this action and call upon the city council to censure his worship for said action; and be it further resolved, that we protest against the government putting the militia to a use for which it was never intended.

All were committed for trial. Geo. W. Cruise, a motorman, also goes for trial for being a member of an unlawful assemblage on Sunday, the only evidence given against him being that of Motorman Aitkin, who stayed with the company. Robert Bushner, convicted on evidence of window smashing, was fined $20 and costs or 30 days. The case is to be appealed. Crown Attorney Curry withdrew a theft charge laid some time ago against Chester Minton, who ran a branch grocery store for Thompson & Co. on College-street. An explanation from Wm. Burglars Sentenced at Welland.

Detective Forrest has returned from Welland, where he attended the trial of the four burglars who operated at Niagara Falls about two weeks ago. The prisoners were tried by Acting-Judge Campbell, convicted and sent to Kingston Penitentiary for three years. Three of these men were captured at Niagara-on-the-Lake and were all armed. The fourth Miller, alias Scott, took the steamer for Toronto, but was captured by Detectives Black and Forrest on his arrival here.
