WESTERN ONTARIO DAIRYMEN CONVENE PRES. CONNOLLY REVIEWS YEAR'S WORK FIVE MILLIONS REALIZED FOR PRODUCT

Report of Chief Instructor Geo. H. Barr Helpful Feature of Day's Deliberations.

CIVIC WELCOME TO DELEGATES

St. Thomas, Jan. 12.—(Special.)—An element of discord developed when Francis Hunt of Elgin County on the floor of the convention declared that there should be more of a check on the factory man in the interest of the producer. He said he had some experience that convinced him the producer was at the mercy of any careless or unscrupulous person. He referred to the manner in which the factory men test the cream sent them by the dairy farmers. The price received by the farmer depended wholly on the accuracy and honesty of the factory man. The producer could not determine when he was receiving fair treatment. He thought that the $4000 contributed by the Ontario government might be partly used to employ a government agent, who would make tests at random around the province of various specimens of milk. This would be a check on the factory man. The government would constitute itself an auditor both for producer and manufacturer. These observations provoked lively comment, mostly adverse to the suggestion that the factory man would be guilty of unfairness.

President Connolly, who is interested both as a producer and a factory man, to the World, replying to this remark, said the government funds were used to employ instructors to teach producers how to improve their yield. He presented the statement that the factory man should be more valued from the government allowance than the producer. The producer could verify the factory test by taking samples to different places. He had heard of this form of complaint in rare instances. He did not believe a factory could afford to be guilty of such a thing, for discovery would mean ruin. The fact remained, however, that there is some considerable demand among producers for a more businesslike check on the factory—without impugning the honesty of the factory managers any more than the installation of a cash register in a store could be accepted as a charge of dishonesty against the clerks. This is a growing question.

St. Thomas, Jan. 12.—(Special.)—The Western Ontario Dairymen's Association opened its thirty-seventh annual convention in the Grand Opera House this afternoon. The president, James Connolly of Porters Hill, was in the chair and delivered his annual address on calling the convention to order at 1:30 o'clock.

Here is the Nominating Committee which will submit to the convention Thursday the list of officers and the thirteen district vice-presidents: Frank Travis, W. B. Shearer, A. R. Dempsey, W. J. A. Bostwell, J. O. Flynn, and W. J. A. Bostwell.

This afternoon Mayor Maxwell formally extended the hospitality of the city to the delegates. J. W. Stewart, president of the Board of Trade, John Macdonald, president of the Board of Education, and other members of the city council were present. Delegates dining that two years ago, the C.P.R. and the G.T.R. companies agreed to supply special equipment designed by the association's experts for moving cheese and butter. Plans were given them for a serious problem in daily circles all over Canada. Much interest attaches to the discussion coming up Wednesday touching transportation of dairy products. This is beginning a serious problem in daily circles all over Canada. Delegates dining that two years ago, the C.P.R. and the G.T.R. companies agreed to supply special equipment designed by the association's experts for moving cheese and butter. Plans were given them for a serious problem in daily circles all over Canada.

The president, James Connolly, in his annual address, referred to the fact that nearly all the members of the association were engaged in the business of dairymen in 1888 had passed away, and he had paid a grateful tribute to the memory of Andrew Pettibone, who was president in 1884-5, and who was devoted to the interests of the dairymen of Ontario. He said, in part: "Successful Season."

The past year has been a profitable one for the dairymen of the province. Good prices prevailed, the weather conditions were favorable for a large make, there being ample moisture to keep the grass fresh, and no extreme heat to spoil the product. But had not the time to prepare for them. Of the people engaged in dairymen, the milk producer is most affected by low prices or bad seasons, and should make preparations to tide them over.

Factories should be built so that the temperature can be controlled in all kinds of weather. The best machinery should be obtained. The product should be composed of good milk cows, as a good cow takes no more room or feed or than a poor one, and she will produce and skilful makers, no matter what the cost.

Cooperation is an important factor in the question of cheap production of cheese and butter. If the farmers and makers work together, the cost of manufacture in some localities will be much reduced. Where there is a lack of cooperation the cost of the product is greatly increased. In some localities where farmers cooperate on these lines, the cost of manufacture does not exceed 35c per hundred pounds, while in other districts where there is no cooperation the cost is 50c or more.

Protection for Product. There is an urgent necessity for securing good curing rooms at the factories and dairies, and the amount of boxes and in wagons protected from the elements. The buyers and the government will take care of the transportation.

The association will furnish speakers for annual meetings, the methods to encourage the patrons to work together to improve the condition of things generally. The forming into groups of about twenty each of the factories, each under the supervision of an instructor, is a move in the same direction. The association has found that the system has given satisfaction and accomplished much good during the season. It is intended to extend the system and ask the assistance of the dairymen of Western Ontario.

Embraces 26 Countries. The territory under the jurisdiction of the association includes twenty-six countries and districts, with 246 factories, which handled 52,000,000 gallons of milk from which 24,000 tons of cheese were made, and $3,000,000 was realized. To this add the amounts for butter made at creameries, and in private dairies, and the amount realized for the hops, raised owing to dairymen, the amounts realized for milk sold to the evaporator and the amount realized for the homes, and you will have a total of $10,000,000.

Our markets are enlarging. Hitherto we have considered Great Britain as our only market, but we are on the highway to the popular Asiatic countries, and in the course of time we will have them as our customers for dairy products.

Directors Report. The report of the directors showed that 225 new members were enrolled and a half in the Kingston Penitentiary.

Japan Taking Final Step Response is Now Drafted

Public Interest at Fever Heat and Developments Anxiously Awaited.

Tokyo, Jan. 12.—The final conference of the Japanese to decide upon the response to the ultimatum of the Russian minister of commerce, Baron de Rosen, was held here this afternoon. It was attended by all the members of the cabinet, five of the elder statesmen, Admirals Ito and Ijima, and Gen. Kodama.

Previous to the conference Admiral Yamamoto, representing Premier Katsura, who is indisposed, had a private audience with the Emperor. Foreign Minister Komura and Marquis Ito also conferred privately. The formal conference before the throne was of long duration, and its result is unknown. It is said, however, that the response that was drafted yesterday was approved, and that it will soon be delivered to Baron de Rosen by the Russian minister.

This answer of Japan is regarded as the final step in the negotiations. Public interest in the outcome is at fever heat, and developments are anxiously awaited.

Hamilton Board of Health Give P. M. H. O. $1800.
Hamilton, Jan. 12.—This afternoon City Engineer Barrow completed a deal by which the James-street steps will be moved 200 or 300 feet further east than they are at present. They will then be connected with James-street by a path. There will be no cost to the city, as C. Freeman has granted the city a new site on the condition that he is given a quit claim for the present site.

At their meeting this evening the members of the Board of Health decided to put up a fight to have the salary of Dr. Langrill, Medical Health Officer, raised from $1400 to $1800. At present the doctor is paid $500 by the board and $900 by the city. The board is willing to provide $1400 of the $1800, and the Finance Committee will be asked to provide the rest. The doctor was offered $1800 to take a charge of the City Hospital, but the Board of Health offered to give him that much to remain at his present post, which he has accepted. Freeman will have charge of the institution.

Supp. Fr. Rutherford applied to the City Board of Health for an increase in salary, and a special committee was named to consider the matter. The members of the committee could get a better rate of interest from the city for a $12,400 perpetual care fund than they are now receiving. The Board would up the year with an overdraft of $278. The receipts amounted to $10,400, and the expenditure is $11,278.

It is expected that the membership will be in the neighborhood of two hundred before many months, as fully that many have already signified their intention of joining. The membership fees of thirty-six were paid last night. A committee was selected to draft a constitution and submit it to a general meeting to be called at a date arranged later. R. S. London, Jan. 12.—(Special.)—Shortly before 6 o'clock this evening, Fanny McGarvey, the woman who was accused of killing her uncle, Patrick Upton of Adelaide Township, at Stratford, was acquitted on the ground of insanity. The case was one of the shortest on record and was commenced this morning before Justice Britton. In fact, she had been so for a year and should have been confined to an asylum.

On one occasion before she had attempted to commit suicide on two occasions she had lived with Upton since she was a child of 16 years of age and late because of sickness had been visited with delusions. Plea Made That Riding Holds Power to Save or Slay the Government.

D. R. ROSS FOR PROHIBITION

Woodstock, Jan. 12.—(Special.)—Lieut.-Col. James Munro of Embro this afternoon received the nomination of the Liberal of North Oxford for the by-election on Jan. 28 to fill the vacancy in the provincial legislature caused by the death of Andrew Pattullo M.L.A. As expected since yesterday, the influence of Premier Ross and the officers of the local association to hold the Liberals of the riding together had no effect, and when the convention assembled Edward Nesbitt, of Woodstock, who had announced himself some days ago as an independent candidate, stated that he had changed his mind and was prepared to change the convention and stand by its decision. This paved the way for the leaving up of the family succession in the ranks, and when the contestants fought with the greatest rivalry to carry the convention, yet all agreed to stand by its decision and support the nominee. Five ballots were required to secure a majority of the votes, and at the close the nomination was declared unanimous.

The president of the North Oxford Liberal Association, Malcolm Douglas, called the convention to order at 2 o'clock. There were 104 delegates present. Every polling subdivision in the riding 30 miles by taxi from Woodstock was represented by its three delegates, not a single delegate being absent. This indicates the keenness of the contest among the rival Liberals in the field for the nomination, and proved that the spirit of the riding for delegates was complete. When the nominations were declared closed at 3 o'clock, the following names were entered in nomination: B. W. NESBITT of Woodstock, COL. JAMES MUNRO of Embro, GEORGE SMITH of Woodstock, J. F. KRUG of Tavistock, J. W. MALCOLM of Woodstock, W. F. MCKAY of Toronto, DR. MEARNS of Woodstock, WALTER MURRAY, Hingham, DR. HORTON of Woodstock, MALCOLM DOUGLAS, Woodstock, DR. MCWILLIAMS, Thamesford, JOHN WHITE, Woodstock.

To Save Ross Government. The president, addressing the delegates, appealed to all to rally round the standard of Woodstock, and the convention and elect him by a substantial majority that the Ross government might be saved. The convention was explained to be in desperate straits. His government was in a life and death struggle, and if North Oxford was lost it would be the final blow. The result here was infinitely important, as the riding of North Oxford could turn over in favor of the Ross government. The convention was explained to be in desperate straits. Holton all paid warm tributes to the late member, Andrew Pattullo, and issued stirring appeals to stand by the convention, referring to the crisis in which the Ross government was placed, in announcing his decision to go before the convention, John White expressed in the strongest terms his feeling of disfavor of the practice adopted by some of his fellow candidates in canvassing the delegates.
