

Pleased to Hear It

Stout men will be pleased to hear that we have for their inspection one of the choicest and most complete ranges of suits made specially for men of stout proportions. For years it has been an aggravation to stout men that they were unable to get fitted as they should be with clothes ready to wear, and in order to please the stout men we have gone extensively into the make that will fit them. Our prices are very modest and start as low as 7.50 and go up to 18.00, with a range of patterns that cannot fail to please,

Won't Have Estimates Cut.

This afternoon the members of the public library board raised the wages of the caretaker, Henry Dankett, to $30 a month. They felt very much burth because the finance committee, other cut and wan their estimates. They cortered the matter to a special committee, who will draw up a strong resolution on the subject.

Chief Clark, Gall, was in the city this evening. He denies that he applied to the police commissioner here to be reinstreted in his old position on the local force.

The internal management committee of the board of education this evening granted Miss Isabell Cox a teacher in the Caroline street school, six months leave of absence, and accepted the resignation of Miss Mary Biggar of the Ryerson School. Trustee George Armstrong put up a fight against the appointment of any more teachers, and found fault because the Wellington-street school had not been closed. His colleagues told him that instead of closed. street school had not been closed. His colleagues told him that instead of closing down schools it would be necessary to build more. There are some 300 new families in the east end of the city. After a good deal of talk, Miss Minnie Taylor was appointed to the teaching staff. The number of pupils on the rolls of the schools is now 7122, as compared with 6930 in the corresponding month last year. This is the first time that an increase has been shown for many months.
