WALL STREET.

New York, June 27—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—The rise in specialties and war shares which accompanied yesterday's later dealings was resumed at the active opening of today's stock market. Tobaccos, leathers, motors, oils, coppers and issues of less definite character were most conspicuous, with gains of large fractions to 1½ points. United States Steel was again in demand, although advancing only a small fraction. Trading in rails, was negligible, and utilities were represented by a 2-point decline in Consolidated Gas. Liberty bonds were steady.

Noon.—The market reflected various cross currents during the busy foremon, leaders yielding fractionally in the first hour. This was followed by another upward movement, United States Steel featuring the advance on a very large turnover at a gain of almost 1 point. Many minor equipments and unclassified stocks, together with low-priced mining issues, were lifted 1 to 4 points. Meanwhile General Motors and Union Pacific and St. Paul fell back moderately with Marine preferred.

1:30 p.m.—Steels, oils and some of the equipments, notably American Locomotive, made new high levels in the early afternoon. Baldwin Locomotive and Sumatra Tobacco moved contrary to the general trend, however, and rails also eased slightly.
