BILL INCREASING

DEBATE TO CONTINUE

for Closure Tomorrow.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The Fordney emergency tariff bill, awaiting action in the Senate, has begun to resemble a wooden ship adrift in a barnacle-infested sea. Every day sees encumbrances added to it both by its opponents and its friends, and the latter today began to see visions of it sinking beneath the waves from the weight imposed.

The latest acquisitions to the bill in the form of amendments appeared to-day in proposals to place an import duty on sunflower seed and on nails. Senator Spencer, Republican, Missouri, sponsored the sunflower seed tariff, and Senator Moses, Republican, New Hampshire presented the amendment which would protect the United States nail industry. Neither senator made any statement in presenting his amendment.

industry. Neither senator made any statement in presenting his amendment. The bill as it left the House provided for duties on about a score of products. Even Senate clerks were unable to estimate the number of commodities that would be subject to additional tariff levies should all the amendments offered since the measure reached that body be adopted.

The bill in the meantime faced another round of debate today—some senators said prohably its last full day—for tomorrow the Senate will be called upon to vote on the petition for closure or limitation of debate, presented yesterday by Chairman Penrose of the finance committee, after unanimous in saying was a "cautiously conser-

London, Feb. 1.—It will be impossible for Germany to pay the amounts fixed for her reparation debt to the Allies by the supreme Allied council at Paris last week, says Prof. John Maynard Keynes, for her reparation debt to the Allies by the supreme Allied council at Paris last week, says Prof. John Maynard Keynes, principal representative of the British treasury at the Versailles peace conference. He argues that Germany, to have surplus exports worth £200,000,000, must have total exports worth at least £700,000,000. Twelve per cent of this amount would be £34,000,000, and, therefore, he says that, with £700,000,- the channels of international trade, if anything remotely like them should really be intended to happen, the reaction on British trade and industry would be incalculable. It is an outrage that the Allied leaders should have dealt with each other by using the methods of a poker party."

Norman Angell, author, lecturer and peace advocate, is quoted by the Daily Headd, organ of labor, as having characterized the reparation demands of commany as "eyewash, pure bunkum and fantastic rubbish."
