COURT OF REVISION WILL MEET ON MONDAY

West Toronto Local Chorus Win High Standing—Many Institute Meetings.

WEST TORONTO, May 28.—The annual sitting of the court of revision on the assessment roll will take place on Monday at 10 a.m. The feature of this year's meeting will be the change which automatically takes place in the personnel of the board, due to the new Sheriff Daville, C. W. Batt and Peter Laughton. The old board consisted of five members of the city council but the law governing a city declares that no councilman or civic official can be a member of the court of revision.

The new roll will be in use to-day on Keele-street, putting wooden blocks in position.

Concert Was Fine. The attendance at the grand concert given to-night in Victoria Presbyterian Church was not as large as it might have been, the program was all that could be desired. Dr. Torrington will be sincerely congratulated by all lovers of good music for the untiring interest he has taken in bringing the chorus to its present state of proficiency after only one short season's practice. "In a few years this chorus will be equal to any one in Toronto," said Dr. Torrington to-night at the close of one part of the program. The chorus consists of 140 members, and the leading artists to-night were: Misses Ashworth, Ellis, Casser, and Scholey and Messrs. Perrin and Taylor. Taken altogether the concert was a great success and augurs a prosperous future for this splendid musical organization.

Mr. Mitchell, one of the clerks at the Bank of British North America, is suffering from appendicitis and was taken to the Western Hospital to-night in Speers' private ambulance. He was later operated on by Drs. Perfect and Hay.

WESTON.

Local Manufacturing Firm Will Run as Open Shop.

WESTON, May 28.—(Special).—For some time the relations between the Moffat Stove Co. and their employees have not been of the most cordial nature, with the result that the works have been practically closed, or run with a greatly diminished staff. Lately a shock, of which the workers brought out to take the place of the regular workmen and laborers, and a few of these are still employed in the works. The shop has always been a union one, and not a little feeling is being aroused by the importation of foreigners, and the fact that the firm are advertising for moulders as an open shop.

SOUTH YORK TEACHERS.

Teachers Roundly Condemn Nambly-Pamby Literature.

The annual meeting of the South York Teachers' Association, which opened in the auditorium of the Normal School yesterday, was prolific of lots of frank criticism with respect to matters educational, in both the public and sectarian Sabbath schools of the province.

James Hand of Stouffville, the president, was in the chair, and the address of Provincial Inspector of Public Libraries, J. W. Leavitt, was the feature of the gathering.

"Many of the Sunday school libraries of the province are filled with sugar-coated sensationalism and twaddle, written under the guise of religion, while the characters are spineless," said Mr. Leavitt.

The address of President Hand was a timely one, along the line of influence in the school.

Inspector Fotheringham paid a well-merited tribute to the memory of J. W. Jewett, late principal of Carlton West public school. The officers of the association are: James Hand, president; W. J. Thompson, secretary, and H. Jones, assistant-secretary.

PEPPERLAW.

T. H. Lennox Has Good Meeting in W. H. Johnson's Home Town.

PEPPERLAW, May 28.—(Special).—T. H. Lennox, the government candidate in North York, received a great reception at Pepperlaw last night, in fact, no number gave it as the biggest and best Conservative meeting ever held there.

Among those on the platform besides the chairman, Dr. Corner were: Dr. Ego, clerk of Georgian Township; J. S. Moore, clerk; G. T. Brick, J. Murphy, ex-warden for Ontario Township; C. Reynard, J. Weir, P. Shier, H. Duncan, J. Flinton and J. Rosamond.

M. J. O'Connor, K.C., in a half-hour address dwelt on the record of the government in redeeming its pledges.

Many ladies were present at the meeting.

Miss Witney had resided in the city for some time, and on Saturday was taken ill at her home, 56 McGill-street, with appendicitis. Medical aid was summoned, and the young lady removed to the Western, where an operation was performed on Saturday night. She never rallied from the shock, and her demise followed yesterday.

A short funeral service was conducted at A. W. Miles' undertaking rooms by Rev. Mr. Hankin last night, and this morning the body was sent to Novar, where interment takes place today in the family cemetery. A magnificent floral pillow was contributed by the departmental employees of the T. Eaton Co. and others.

Deceased was 22 years of age.

PYNE AND WHITESIDES HAVE ROUSING RALLY

Big Crowd Applaud Two Candidates—Mr. Mackay is Warmly Criticized.

One of the best meetings of campaign was that in support of Hon. Dr. Pyne, minister of education, and R. Whitesides in O'Neill's Hall, Queen and Parliament-streets, last night. On the platform were Noel Marshall, Ald. Saunders, and A. Claude Macdonell, M.P.; J. A. Macdonald, K.C.; Dr. Thornton, Dr. Secombe, Ed. Randall, E. R. Hurst and others.

J. N. McKendry presided. He declared that the good services to the Province of Ontario rendered by Dr. Pyne as minister of education during the past three years, and his high character of Mr. Whitesides, made their election a certainty. A number of sermons, he said, were being preached in The Globe over the signature of Mr. Mackay, but he rather imagined that Mr. Mackay never saw them until they appeared.

Dr. A. W. Thornton said that Mr. Mackay was publicly expressing pride in having Rev. D. C. Hossack as a follower. But Mr. Hossack was not expressing pride in Mr. Mackay as a leader. Mr. Hossack placed himself on record after the provincial Liberal convention. He then publicly wrote that Hon. Mr. Mackay and Hon. George Graham "wrecked the temperance plank." As a temperance man of many years standing, Dr. Thornton argued that the three-fifths majority is in the interests of the permanency of local opinion, instead of its being made a party issue.

Ed. Randall, as a labor representative, said that labor was indebted to the Whitney government for many acts, such as the abolition of the numbered ballot and progress towards the elimination of contract prison labor.

A. Claude Macdonell, M.P., said he came from Ottawa purposely for this meeting. He was happy to say that the Conservative party was never on such good terms with the government as at present. If there ever was a time when labor should stand by the Conservative party it is now. Mr. Whitney had almost doubled the revenue of the province, and had devoted a great proportion of this to the improvement of education. He had given over $100,000 last year for charities more than given by Mr. Ross in any one year.

Dr. Secombe pointed out that it is impossible for any elector to furnish a single good reason why the Whitney government should not be continued in power. Mr. Mackay had proved himself to be but an opportunist.

J. A. Macdonell, K.C., in a humorous way, said that the Conservative party was an enthusiastic supporter of both Dr. Pyne and Mr. Whitesides. It was hard medicine for him to take when he was beaten for the nomination, but he freely admitted that he was defeated fairly and squarely, and that there was no warrant for the charge that the convention was packed.

E. R. Hurst as a labor man gave a number of strong reasons why the wage-earner should combine to support the Whitney government.

Hon. Dr. Pyne was given a rousing reception. The minister of education briefly rehearsed the promises made by Mr. Whitney, and showed that they had been fulfilled. Dr. Pyne called attention to an article from The Christian Guardian which said that there was nothing against the government. The Globe was saying, "Trust the people." The old Liberal creed was that the people should be trusted.
