Men Under Suspicion Issued Certificates—I he Sub-Committee's Ruling.

The O.H.A. sub-committee at a meeting at The Telegram Otlice yesterday, with the acting president, sheriff J. F. Paxton, in the chair, decaded to grant a certaticate to Gunner Wm. Adams of the 70th Battery to play in Toronto with the St. Patrick's team. The fact that Adams is a sodier enlisted for overseas service decided the case in his favor. The same ruling will apply to any other hockey player in the same position who has joined the colors if he can furnish a satisfactory affidavit as to his ammateur standing. The explanation of G. L. Crook, last year with Port Colborne, was considered satisfactory and a certificate issued to him to play in Toronto.

The players Klaen and Seifling were declared eligible to play with Kitchener under the residence rule.

If Milverton enters under the name listowel-Milverton they will be allowed to use Listowel players. This is a similar case to Bothwell-Thamesville.

Ernie Freyer of Collingwood, who has been under suspension for several years, will be granted a certificate conditionally upon continued good conduct on and off the ice.

The Ottawa hockey team that will line-up against Canadiens in the first home game of the season at Ottawa to-night will be pretty much the same as succumbed to the 228th Battalion team here on Wednesday. Nighbor will not be able to play, as while practising at Pembroke to keep in shape his left hand was painfully gashed, the wound-requiring several stitches to close. Merrill may be signed for the defence before the team steps on the ice at 8.30 tomorrow night.

All the returned soldiers at the convalescent homes have been invited to attend touight's Toronto-Quebec game at the Arera, where they may have a look at a husky lot of athletes (two whole trams), who would look better in the khaki than in those pro, hockey clothes.

A Kingston despatch says: Queen's hockey team left at noon today for New York, where it will on Saturday night meet the Crescents' Athletic Association toam on St. Nicholas' Rink. The players are: Goal. Lees; defence, Fahey and Spence; forwards, Purvis, Hanley, Paul and Roldnson.

Well-Known Curler Running For the Board of Education JUNIOR SEASON OPENS

R. B. Rice, the candidate for school trustee in No. 2, is one of the best-known men in the ward, where he has resided 33 years. Before establishing his wellknown real estate firm, Mr. Rice was uccessfully connected with the wholesale business. He is one of the best-known curlers and bowlers in the province, and secretary since its organization of the Queen City Club. He is the father of a large fam ly and thoroly understands edu-cational matters. Im medi tely after the election Mr. Rice leaves for England to fetch home his son, who is convalescing in a military hospital, where he had both legs amputated. The boy was nearly a year in the trenches before he was se-verely wounded.

Crooks and Teasdale are fighting it out for the net-minding job with T.R. & A.A. SIGNAL TOWER BURNED.

Weston Will Play Aura Lee -Quebec and Torontos Tonight -Addison Out.

The O.H.A. junior season opens at the Arena this afternoon with Aura Lee playing Weston. The game will start at 2 p.m., and the prices are popular, 25 to 50c. Tonight Que ec play Torontos, and as both teams won on Wednesday they should be greeted by a u.g house. Torontos ordilant victory over Canadiens made them many friends.

Dug Addison, the former T.R. & A.A. and St. Michaels' goaler, turned out with Riversides last night. Addison will go to Sarnia and Detroit with the senior O.H.A. champions and will be available for Riversides' games on his return. Collett, the regular goaler, is unable to turn out owing to stekness in his family.

Aura Lee trotted out a new junior last night in Hughes from Collingwood. It was his first appearance on states this season. He gives promise of some good work later.

Gunner Adams was out with St. Patricks. Several players from the Duffer.ns made their first appearance. A couple of useful men may be secured out of the lot. Reg Nobie's young brother is in town to look Reg over in the pro, ranks.

Owners of International, as Last Resort, Will Favor the Ebbets Plan.

New York, Dec. 29.—Owners of International and American Association Clubs will meet at Cincinnati next Tuesday to fight the drafting of their players by the major leagues, according to an announcement tonight by President Barrow of the International League.

They intend, be said, to urge the National Commission, which also meets at Cincinnati on Tuesday, to exempt the three class AA. leagues from the draft. The Pacific Coast League, the third of that class, Mr. Barrow said, had lost some of its interest in the anti-draft movement.

If the National Commission refused to consider the elimination of the draft, Mr. Barrow added, the draft plan submitted by President Ebbets of the Brooklyn National League Club, would be favored. Under this plan the drafting of players from the class AA. leagues must stop when the playor limit is reached by the major league teams.

Says Commission Will Turn Down Application of Big Three.

Chicago, Dec. 29.—The plea of the three class AA lengues—the Pacific Coast. International and American Association—for the abolition of the draft rule—will in all probability be denied when the National Baseball Commission meets in Cincinnati next week. President Johnson of the American League said tonight. President Johnson, a member of the commission, said the present draft rule was changed by the commission at the suggestion of the same leagues, which now ask that it be amended.

"The class AA. club owners opposed the old rule." Mr. Johnson said, "because they complained that it caused dissension among the drafted players if they eventually were rejected. The commission changed it to meet their own demands. I do not think there is a chance of its being changed again."

Mr. Johnson said, however, that consideration would be given the plea regarding the immediate reporting of purchased players. The club owners wish to retain the players purchased until the close of their own season.

MCCORMICK RECREATION CENTRE. The boys of the McCormick Recreation Centre presented the first minstrel show that has been presented at any City Playground Centre before a crowded Playground Centre before a crowded house.

Supervisor F. Denning, as interlocutor, was ably assisted by G. Poxee, J. Green, G. LeBarge and H. Crilly as end men.

Laughter and appreciation of the jokes were the keynotes during the whole performance. G. Young and B. Ivers assisted in the ringing, while G. Shrieber demonstrated what a really good clog-dancer can do. Messrs, Jones. Whitemsn. Saunders and Nash furnished the musical setting to a most enjoyable black-face show.

The junior girls furnished the second part of the program, and did themselves credit by their graceful lancer.

Commissioner C. E. Chambers, after congratulating the entertainers on their splendid performance, traced the development of the use of the recreation centres from partly children's work to centres at which parents took an active interest and part.

THE FISH AT CENTRAL

Boys and Business Classes in Close Finishes in Holiday Competitions.

A good evidence that swimming is still a live issue at central Y.M.C.A. was uomonstrated yesterday, when two special swimming galas were put on in consideration with the holiday pragram of the boys' division. Promptly at 2.50 p.m. the school ooys aned up for what thind out to be a fine exhootion of swimming and diving, and as competitors had to swim in their own weights, the libraries were particularly close in many cases. In the 60-30 pound class honors were farrly well divided, J. Theming, E. Backell and B. Migaissock getting their share of the bauges were again a subjusted eventy, Mac Langton, Paul Winchester and G. Wood getting two each. The 100-120 pound class was a walkover for Ahan Young, with Ben Lindsay second, the former getting holess than 4 firsts, the lighter having three seconds and one third to his credit. Les Uren, Albert Hounsom and Cliff Booth fought out the unlimited class between them, Les Uren being in front on three occasions out of four times up. But it was in the 100-yard handicap that excitement ran high, and it was only by Les Uren sticking out his tongue that he managed to beat out Albert Hounsom in the fine time of 1.18.

At 8 o'clock the business boys had their innings, and here again in the 100-120 pound class the racing was good. George Salt was out to get W. William's goat, but the latter was just a little bit better than his opponent, but the same Billie Williams will have to keep in the best possible shape in order to hold his own the near future against Salt. C. Howard, H. Parris and E. Brown were the successful winners in the S0-100 pound class, C. Clark and G. Douglas in the 60-80 pound class and F. Fribe and W. Chalmers in the unlimited class. The results:

James Braid, Golfer

Object dive-1. P. Frobe:

James Braid, the famous British golfer, who has been mourned as dead in this country and in the United States, is evidently in the land of the living. One night two weeks ago Braid's death was reported by cable, the story being that he fell beneath an express train. Later the story was "killed." and "mounced incorrect. However, it got, into many papers, and nearly all the leading sport writers have rubl'shed their grief. Some have gone so far as to express the sorrow of leading British players with whom Braid used to play. However, British papers arriving this week state that
