TEMPTING BILLS AT TORONTO THEATRES

Gayety Opens Saturday Afternoon—Chu Chin Chow for Royal Alexandra.

The Messrs. Lee and J. J. Shubert will present McIntyre and Heath's new spectacular musical extravaganza, "Hello, Alexander," at the Royal Alexandra, commencing next Monday evening. This, the most pretentious production in which these celebrated black-face comedy stars have ever appeared, ran for many weeks at the 44th Street Theatre in New York and at the Garrick Theatre in Chicago, attracting great audiences and declared an altogether novel and delightful offering. McIntyre and Heath recently celebrated the forty-sixth anniversary of their stage partnership, establishing by a wide margin a record unique in the annals of the theatre. The company numbers almost one hundred people, every member of which has been selected with the definite purpose of creating a new standard of what has been declared a remarkable and unusual entertainment. Among the principals are Homer Dickinson and Grace DeLeon, who played "The Girl from Happyland" at the Royal Alexandra, Mabel Elaine, Betty Lewis, Dorothy Moore, Dan Quinlan, Edward Scanlon, Dan McNeil, Earl Richards, Rhylis Ray, Newport and Strik. Chic Barrymore and others. Seats are on sale today.

At Loew's Next Week. In its theme "The Perfect Woman," Constance Talmadge's latest photoplay at Loew's Yonge Street Theatre and Winter Garden next week, is entirely different from anything that has been used as a subject for humorous photoplays. The Mimmie World, while in Saskatchewan and Alberta the weather has been cool with scattered showers.

Gayety's Reopening. A production of rare distinction has been secured for the opening of the Gayety Theatre which takes place with the musical performance on Saturday afternoon, August 21. "The Girl from Happyland" will usher in a season that promises to be most remarkable. The excellence of its superlative offerings. Sam Lewis, the wonderful laugh-provoker, is the principal comedian. He is seen to better advantage in this new show than has ever been the case in the past. There will be two burlesques entitled "Nearly a Husband," and "The Wonder Springs." These musical comedies will be presented in a galaxy of wonderful scenery and by a company noted for its talent, its wonderful wit and the beauty of its large chorus.

Next Week at the Star. Next week will see the number one show of the American Burlesque Circuit, "The Folies of Pleasure." Mr. Ruben Bernstein, owner and producer of the Folies' first acquired the habit of exposing the year's social and political facts in the year 1903, and it is said that the new 1921 edition of the "Folies" will outdo any of Mr. Bernstein's past efforts. Strictly accurate in its presentation, the big cast and beauty chorus, Clyde J. Bates, the King of Tramps, and known as "Sum Bums" and "Y. G. Gold," burlesques the Kluge Kid, head the big list of entertainers, and is assisted by Dorothy Barnes, Lew Rice, Ruth Barbour, Betty Gordon and several others too numerous to mention. Seats are now on sale.

Dorothy Gish at Strand. The exceptionally fine Paramount Artcraft picture starring Dorothy Gish, which is being presented all this week at the Strand Theatre, is winning golden opinion from the patrons of that popular playhouse. It abounds in the funniest situations, imaginable. Its central theme, the recalcitrance of the novel means of a wayward and roving husband, is handled with great skill and delicacy, and with a discretion which, while bringing out all the humor, safeguards it from the least approximation to vulgarity. Dorothy Gish excels herself in the role of the wife who reclames the erring one.

"Dumbells" Continue at the Grand. "The Dumbells" will remain at the Grand Opera House one more week, the public demand necessitating an extension of the engagement. Every one knows by this time that the "Dumbells" are the party of entertainers selected by the Third Division to entertain the soldiers while at rest from the strenuous life in the trenches in France. Over 500 performances were given in France and forty-four in Belgium, after the armistice. They made a short tour in England, and last year visited all the old home towns in Canada. The receptions tendered them were enthusiastic, and their popularity grew to such an extent that they were obliged to play return engagements. "Biff, Bing, Bang," the title of the revue, is a meritorious offering and is classically presented.

Regent Next Week. It is hard indeed for an affectionate, emotional woman, devoted to her father and deeply in love with her fiancé, to decide which of the two is wrong in a vital matter where both cannot possibly be right. Such is the predicament of Helen Reardon in "The Regent," an Alice Joyce special production, which will be shown at the Regent Theatre next week. The pathetic faith of Helen in her unhappy father and her grief over what she feels to be the base ingratitude of her fiancé, are admirably displayed by the charming and popular star. "The Regent" is a story of bitter sorrows bravely endured, with an ending far more happy than the circumstances would lead one to expect. Miss Edna Reed, a very accomplished dramatic soprano, has been engaged as the soloist for next week. The overture will be "The Bohemian Girl," and will be played by the Famous Regent Orchestra, under the direction of John Arthur. The program is exceedingly attractive and will be presented under most admirable conditions in regard to ventilation.

"Chu Chin Chow." The seat sewell engagement of F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest's production of "Chu Chin Chow" will open at the Royal Alexandra on Thursday, August 28. During the local engagement the evening performances will start at 8 o'clock promptly, and the matinee at two.

AMALGAMATION IS TOPIC OF VETERANS

The question of amalgamation was one of vital discussion at the meeting of the West Toronto G.W.V.A. at St. Julien hall last night. "Amalgamation is absolutely essential," said President Payne, and disunion is fatal. We are absolutely divided as we are not so much divided as are the politicians who have control of our organizations. Certain men are in the hands of the political parties. If the membership of the G.W.V.A. were taken, there is no doubt the power would reflect with us. The G.W.V.A. is not a political party. It is a patriotic organization in Canada. At a certain time the gratuity question came up and these men fell down. They had acted at the right time and in the right spirit, there would have been no other organization at the present time. There should be one democratic organization.

President Payne recommended that one big meeting be called for the election of officers, and there would be unity.

THE PRINCIPLES OF SHORTHAND IN TWELVE LESSONS

REVELRY ON ROADS MUST BE STOPPED

People Are Determined to Act if York Township Council Fails Them.

"The residents of the eastern district thank The World for taking up the joy-riding and night revelry on the country roads through the township," said Dennis McCarthy, secretary, Amalgamated Association of York Township Ratepayers' Association, to The World yesterday. "Only last night a motor car with men and women stood on the road not far from my home in Danforth Park for a considerable time, and no constable appeared on the scene. He added that the people in his section are determined to act but it is for York township council to take the initiative," Mr. McCarthy said.

According to advice received by Alderman Richard Honeyford from the department of justice, Thomas Miller, aged 15, of 62 Cedarvale avenue, who is in the jail farm undergoing a three-months' sentence on charge of vagrancy, is to be released when the necessary arrangements have been made. The youth was found underneath a verandah by the police at midnight. He said that he had been turned out by his sister, but he was sentenced with his parents and sister knowing of his arrest.

The funeral of the late James Robert Bangay, 50 Golfview avenue, aged 17 years, who was recently drowned in the Ottawa River, took place yesterday at St. John's Cemetery, Norway. His body was previously accorded a military funeral at Petawawa. Born in Toronto, he was a pupil at Second School until his fifteenth year. He is survived by his parents, four brothers and four sisters.

Roden branch, G.W.V.A., annual this week. It has been postponed until meeting which was to have been held after the Canadian National Exhibition.

A garden fete under the auspices of Rhodes Avenue Baptist Church was held last evening on the church lawn. Roden branch, G.W.V.A., band under the leadership of W. W. Goldsmith, rendered a fine musical program. There was a large attendance. Among those present were Rev. A. A. Kelley, pastor, and Mrs. Kelley. The proceeds will be devoted to the new Sunday school building fund. Over 700 has been collected within the last two months for this purpose.

SUBURBAN NOTES

The fine weather of yesterday attracted crowds of citizens to the beaches, altho the number of bathers was less than usual owing to roughness of the water.

A first-aid building in charge of a trained nurse has been established at the Canadian National Railway's layout, Leaside. In this connection, a first-aid team is attached to the coach shop and the erection shop.

Roden branch G.W.V.A., band of 40 trained musicians will give a concert tomorrow evening in Kew Beach Park. The proceeds are to be devoted to the equipment, among other things.
