PARIS. Nov. 1.—The King's projected journey to the northern departments is indefinitely postponed.

The discrepancy of Europe is every moneant believed to be nearer at hand. Great is the consequent dissatisfaction of the war party, who console themselves by helicving, and by attempting to persuade every looking the state of the surface of the surfac more unwarrantable character. The complaints, memorials and protests of some of the sovereign states of this confederacy, have been unanticed or disvegarded, and the constitution seems about to be merged in the will of an unrestrained majority. No one can now doubt the tendency of that Government, or the momerous exils which must ensue, unless speedily arrested in its downward career.

 The Tariff law, of which all the Southern States so justly complain, is calculated to take from our citizens the prefit they have carried by their industry, and is, also, a violation of the constitution.—

Not only has this been dece, but laws have been passed appropriating the public money for purposes fo-
