

BISHOP VISITING SEVERAL CHURCHES

Will Attend Moncton Meeting—Next Sunday to be in Saint John.

His Lordship Bishop Richardson will attend a meeting of the directors of the Maritime Home for Women to be held today in Moncton. It will be the first meeting of the board which he has been present, and his attendance has been specially asked by the committee.

Bishop Richardson was in the city yesterday for the confirmation service held last night at the Church of the Good Shepherd, in Fairville, and Saint John was one stopping place in an extended itinerary. On Sunday he had been in Kingston parish, of which Rev. R. E. J. Britton is rector. In the morning the Bishop officiated at a confirmation service in Trinity church at Kingston, the oldest original church building in New Brunswick. Kingston church was erected in 1786. Bishop Richardson also dedicated a memorial which was unveiled at the morning service in Trinity church, commemorating Rev. H. S. Wainwright, who was for many years rector of the parish and who died about two years ago.

LONG REACH CHURCH.

In the afternoon His Lordship attended the service at Whitehead church and in the evening held confirmation at St. James' church in Long Reach. In St. James' church there is the only three-decker pulpit known in New Brunswick, and it has been preserved in exact form as it was made. Bishop Richardson said that he had never ventured to climb to the topmost seat and to preach from the third tier, that was supposed to be the preaching pulpit. From that high elevation the preacher would have an airplane view of the congregation he fancied.

After attending the meeting of the Board of the Maritime Home for Women this afternoon he will go on to visit the congregations at Hillsboro and Riverside in Albert county on Wednesday, and on Thursday will return to Fredericton.

HERE ON SUNDAY.

He will be back in Saint John on Sunday and will preach in the morning at All Saints church in East Saint John. In the evening he will be the special preacher in the Mission Church of St. John the Baptist, as Sunday will be observed as the festival of the paternal Saint in the Mission Church. The preacher in the morning will be Ven. Archdeacon A. H. Crowfoot. Speaking of the situation as regards vacant missions in the diocese, His Lordship said that there were fewer vacant missions now than at any time since before the war. He expected to see most of the missions occupied this fall.

Puts Flavour into Home Cooking

Don't think of Mustard merely as a spicy relish to enjoy with cold meat.

Mustard is a seasoning to be used as widely as you use salt and pepper.

Mustard brings out the natural hidden flavours of cooked dishes and, adding its own flavour, gives them a new zest and relish.
