Old Board of Directors Re-Elected by Victorian Order—Report of Expansion.

Awaiting the passing of the act of incorporation, the Victorian Order of Nurses at the twentieth annual meeting here, yesterday afternoon in the V. O. home in Carlton street, re-elected the former board of directors, Hon. J. G. Forbes being president. Miss Cole, donation inspector of nurses, and Miss Foreshaw, head of the recently opened school for district and public health nurses, each gave some impressions of the work of the order in St. John and the reports submitted showed a remarkable increase in crops of fruits and vegetables. Write for illustrated booklet on Crop Diseases.

TALKED ON IRELAND

A large audience gathered at St. Vincent's Auditorium last evening to hear Captain (Rev.) T. O'Sullivan, M. C. of Halifax, who, under the auspices of the St. John branch of the Irish Self Determination for Ireland League of Canada, delivered a lecture on Ireland. M. E. Agar, president of the local branch of the league, was in the chair. Before calling upon Father O'Sullivan, he introduced the Moore Quartette, who favored the audience with several vocal selections. At the close of the address Mrs. Alice Harris rendered a vocal selection, which was accompanied by Harry McQuade. A vote of thanks to the speaker by the chairman on behalf of Dr. W. P. Broderick and secretary of the meeting.

If your grocer were greedy for profits he would not be content to sell and recommend Red Rose Tea at a less profit than he makes on other teas.

But it is a fact that he does make less on Red Rose than on other teas, and he recommends it because he knows its quality is the best.
