DOCK ST. BLOCK REBUILT. The biggest real estate transaction recorded recently in the city proper is that reported today by the Times. The front part of the Dock street block purchased about ten weeks ago by Thomas Nagle, of Sussex. The purchaser is an English capitalist. The block has a frontage of 225 feet comprising about 30,000 square feet, has five buildings and eighteen tenants. The transaction is an important one and is one of the best face to face of the stability of the real estate market.

TORONTO EXHIBITION. The Canadian Pacific Railway are now exceptionally low rates for the Toronto Exhibition. Tickets at special low rates will be issued August 28th and 29th and Sept. 2nd, comprising about 100 miles for the round trip. These tickets will be good to leave Toronto up to and including Sept. 1st. Passengers sitting sleeping car accommodation should make early application for space, as it is desired, if possible, to assign lower berth to each person.

M. HENRI FABRE WILL NOT STARVE ON $3,300 A YEAR. Paris, Aug. 17.—New light has been thrown on the circumstances of M. Henri Fabre, the famous entomologist on whose pecuniary behalf friends were interesting themselves. Since public attention has been drawn to the case the unfortunate scientist has been besieged with reporters, and has received numerous gifts of money together with a sum of about $500 from the government. M. Fabre has retained the latter, but returned all the former to the donors.

The whole story of his alleged pecuniary affairs is apparently true. It appears that publishers of his famous "Souvenirs Entomologiques" and some other works, paid royalties last year amounting to over $3,300. Altogether this sum has paid M. Fabre over $85,000 on the sale of his books. If not exactly fortune, this is a substantial sum, and it has enabled the venerable author recently to deposit $7,000 as savings in the bank. The incident is now considered closed, and M. Fabre will perhaps be allowed to cultivate his insect "farms" in peace and quietness for the rest of his life.

LAST PERFORMANCE OF "THE RED ROSE" TODAY

The last two performances of "The Red Rose" will be given this afternoon and evening at the Opera House, and it is expected that each will be very largely attended as many people have not had an opportunity of seeing this splendid performance as yet. It is one of the best musical productions seen in St. John for a long time, and fully bears out what was said concerning it in advance. The members of the company live up to the reputation given them and their names will long be remembered by those who have seen the production.

TO WORK DREDDLES IN COURTENAY BAY ALL THROUGH WINTER

W. Burton Stewart, general manager of the Norton Griffiths Co. Ltd., has returned to the city after a fishing trip to Bonaventure. Speaking to a Times reporter this morning, Mr. Stewart said that the rain had hindered progress on the work at Courtenay Bay but now that more favorable weather conditions prevailed the work would be carried on more satisfactorily. Nothing has yet been done in the way of awarding any of the dredging sub-contracts but he hoped to be able to make a definite announcement concerning the dredging within the next few days.

A NEW FUR STORE

H. Mont Jones, who was connected with the Dunlop Cooke Co. Ltd. for more than twelve years, has opened a fur establishment of his own at 84 King street, where he occupies the entire second floor. The store is devoted to an extensive show room and is handsomely furnished, the finishing being in quarters oak. The decorations are in light colors, which, together with the large plate glass front, make one of the brightest show rooms in the province.

At the rear is the factory, where all kinds and qualities of fur garments are made from the ordinary coat to the more elaborate seal garment.

Mr. Jones is well qualified in his art and few persons know fur better. His long experience in the business enables him to buy the best material obtainable, and he is in personal touch with the work from the time the fur leaves the animal's skin to the time it is made into a garment, a good line of fur goods should be in his short time.

A wide assortment of fur coats, boas, muffs and stoles is now being displayed, and all who intend to purchase will do well to inspect the store.

MISDIRECTED.

"What is a misdirected zealot, Uncle William?"

"A misdirected zealot, George, is a man who, when his house is burning, is so determined to keep the flames from being fanned that he kicks his dog for wagging his tail."

PROVINCIAL GIRL WHO FOLLOWED THE CIRCUS CHARGED WITH THEFT

Bangor, Aug. 17.—An elderly Italian musician engaged to the Ferraris came to St. John this morning with a tale of having lost $117 in money, his gold watch and a pair of shoes, which he said he thought were stolen by a young girl named Brown, who joined the show in the provinces, and has been trailing after it without any official connection with it. The Italian also said that he had seen the girl in the city, and an Italian named Jimmy the Wop, and a negro called Little Johnny, both of whom he supposed had been in the city on Wednesday evening when the $117 and other things were missed.

Chief Police Officer Baxter and Officer Geddon Mabeu started on the trail of the three and traced them from Winslow to Boston, by St. John, where they were given a ticket for Portland, Maine, while describing the girl, who got a ride on a truck team and came to Waterville, giving herself up. She said the men had the watch and supposedly the money.

It is supposed that the men went to Portland on train 64, which left Waterville at 8:45 a. m. The Portland police have been notified and it is expected that a capture will be made.

The Brown girl is now at the police station awaiting the capture of the men who deserted her. It is said that one of them promised to marry her when she reached Lewiston.
