PLAY FOR BOSTON TWILIGHT CLUB

Undecided As To His Plans For The Season

That Clarence "Quip" Moore would rejoin the Vets. professional baseball team providing that he does not remain in Boston to play with some team in the Twi-Light League, was an announcement given out yesterday by Vincent Shea, who was manager of the G. W. V. A. Club last season. He said that Moore has a chance to play in Boston, but has not definitely decided whether to remain there or come back whether to remain there or come back to Saint John. Moore was given a try-out with Worcester in the New England League, but owing to the large number of players seeking berths he failed to catch on.

Will Have Team Mr. Shea also definitely announced that the Vets would have a professional baseball team this season. At a recent meeting it was decided to go ahead and organize and an effort is now being made to sign up players.

Two Teams Organized At the present time there are two rofessional teams pretty well orga-ized, the Saints, which will be under management of Joe Dever and will represent the northern section of the city, and another being banded together by Thomas Mullet of the East End. Considerable interest is being manifested in the proposed professional league and fans are awaiting definite announcements as to the personnel the teams and plans for the season.

Announcer Gave Interesting and Amusing Details During Progress of Card.

Radio fans had a lot of fun last night with the facetious announcer on WBZ giving a running account of the championship boxing bouts, in which several Canadians came off victorious, A brass band played the national airs of each oand played the national airs of each victorious boxer once the decision was given. When the Canadian boys were announced as winners the band played "The Mapleleaf Forever" and the annuncer waxed quite enthusiastic, re-testing that all listeners stand up. ome of his friends, evidently sitting side him, good-naturedly accused him beside him, good-naturedly accused him of partiality in his announcements when a Canadian and Argentine bout was on, and gradually the fact was elicited through the merry banter that the radio humorist was formerly a Canadian newspaper writer, but his identity was not disclosed. Certainly the announcer's chatter as the puglilists pummelled one another was very like the sprightly narrative of H. C. Witwer, Harry Beaumont and other popular sport scribes.

FNTHUSIASM IN baseball here is not as marked as might be expected which may be attributed to the fact that the weather man is dishing out a semi-fall type of breezes. With daylight saving in vogue interest should be keen, but it needs a bright sunny day to bring on the fever. However, there is lots of time yet before the umps. will adjust their chest protectors and masks and send out that long familiar and ever popular cry-"play ball." Chilly winds and bleak days have no part in baseball, but when King Sol decides to pay us a more lengthy visit and starts shedding a fair amount of heat it can be taken for granted that the fans will quickly thaw out and seek a point of vantage in some park where they can speak in terms of base hits, home runs and out shoots and incidentally bawl out the ump, or unfortunate pitcher on an opposing team. The former must stand pat and hear a few of the following suggestions: "Come on you big stiff, look 'em over," "Say you big bonehead you're cross-eyed," "Say open your good eye." The latter usually is greeted with: "Take him out, he's as wild as a circus horse," "Drive him to the timbers." "Knock it down his throat," etc. These must sound rather choice to any person not familiar with the game, but it is a legitimate language on a ball

TY. COBB is certainly setting a sensational pace for batters in the American League. His record of five home runs in two games surpasses the best achievement of Babe Ruth, the acknowledged "King of Swat." In addition he is well over the .500 mark and is leading both leagues in hitting.

FITHER JOHNNY McINTYRE is falling down as a drawing card or else times are pretty hard in Sydney, judging from word received here recently to the effect that the proposed bout between the former Saint John boxer and Kid Smith had to be called off because of a slim attendance. If the former was responsible then it is high time Johnny started staging a comeback. If the latter condition exists then he will have to seek other fields to show his wares.

After reading an account of this kind one cannot help wondering why McKenna does not get out and make some easy money in other centres. Promoters here are eager to sign him, but so far success has not attended their efforts. If the Cape Breton boy ever hopes to make a mark in the roped arena he will have to start out and show fans that he has the goods. Saint John fans want him and local promoters are ready to give him a good sized purse so it is hard to understand why he is holding off.

THE ENCOURAGEMENT of good sportsmanship on the baseball field is a master move on the part of the City Amateur League executive. A player can be aggressive, stand up for his rights and still be a gentleman.

THE ECHOES OF Madison Square Garden, the historic New York centre where all of the great gladiators of the ring have perormed, will fling back the howl of the boxing fans no more. To Johnny Dundee and Sid Terris went the honor of appearing in the last bout that will ever be staged in an amphitheatre, which was the battleground of John L. Sullivan, Peter Maher, Bob Fitzsimmons, Stanley Ketchel, Joe Gans and practically every great exponent of the art. The result of the bout Tuesday did not meet with popular favor. However, it was a case of an old man of the ring being pitted against a youngster. The former participated in 800 scraps during his 15 years of milling while Terris, who has been fighting for four years has only participated in 50 bouts. There is no doubt that the new stadium will be built along colossal lines and will be a fitting successor to the Garden, bút it will be many a long year before it will be able to compare from many standpoints with the grand old sport centre now in the hands of a wrecking crew.

JOHN Shortstop Who Has Played 1,307 Consecutive Games Says He Will Never Sit On The Bench

> NEW YORK, May 7.—Everett Scott, shortstop of the New York Pittsburg Yankees, who played in 1,307 consecutive major league baseball games until he was taken from the line-up yesterday, is on

The East Saint John Lawn Tennis Club held their first meeting of the season last evening at the home of Mrs. James Foley with O. J. Lawson in the chair. The report of the treasurer showed that the club is in a splendid condition financially and had a large membership.

Officers Elected

The election of officers resulted as follows: O. J. Lawson was re-elected president; Miss V. Foley, secretary and wm. Woodroffe, treasurer; ground committee, Ronald Poley, Miss V. Foley, will be ready in a few days and the club intends to get an early start this year. Regular meetings will be held the third Thursday of every month.

Yankees, who played in 1,307 consecutive major league Dase—ball games until he was taken from the line-up yesterday, is on this way west, but not with the team. He will spend a few days visiting at his home in Indiana.

The story of the benching of Scott, leaked out during the night, as base-ball followers discussed the situation. The shortstop himself said that his withdrawal came as a surprise, as he was "Just beginning to play ball."

"I got two hits yesterday." Soott soil realized my ambition, when I had played 1,000 straight games. Had my benching come when the team was losming I would not have cared, but it should happen the day after we win a game, and I make after we win

COBB CRASHES St. James and Trinity Clubs Meet In Championship Series

Arrangements have been completed eliminated St. Jude's, and Trinity de-Arrangements have been completed for a play-off for the championship of the City Church Badminton League between St. James and Trinity clubs. A series of three matches will be played, and, the first is scheduled for this evening on St. James' floor. There will be two events of ladies' doubles, four of mixed doubles and two men's doubles on the opening card. The play-off will commence at 7.30 sharp.

In the semi-final play-off, St. James eliminated St. Jude's, and Trinity defeated Stone. This brings together two of the fastest church clubs in the city, and as rivalry is keen some thrilling matches are anticipated.

The second match will be played off later on Trinity courts, but nothing definite has as yet been decided as to the third, as one or the other may clinch the title in the two matches screduled. It is expected that a large number of badminton enthusiasts will be in attendance at the match this evening.

Getting Ready

Local Catcher Is Said To Be Available For Team

John "Hap" Hanlon, Halifax base-ball ace, who spent the past eight months in Florida and Bermuda, has returned to Halifax for the summer, says the Halifax Herald. Stating that says the Halifax Herald. Stating that he had confidence in the local public to support professional baseball, Hanlon plans a speedy organization. He will communicate with the various towns where professional ball was operated last year, and says that Halifax will have a team to play American touring clubs, regardless of what the other towns do.

Nucleus For Team. Hanlon stated that his brother, Frank Hanlon, Sammy Lesser, Nick Phelan, Harold Donovan and himself from last year's team, with Billy Richardson, Middleton pitching star, are ready to play with Halifax. Others who might be secured are Gosnell, St. John pro., who is attending Dalhousie, and Vince Boyne, Middleton infielder. Work to get the game going here will be started today, with the Wanderers' grounds mentioned as the home diamond.
