

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE TO THE HOME
MISSION COMMITTEE OF CANADA YEARLY MEETING OF FRIENDS.

During the year that has elapsed since you confided to us the oversight of the Home Mission work, although your committee have keenly felt their own inability, and the small amount of money at their disposal, yet they gratefully acknowledge the blessing of the Lord on much of the labor of the workers, and believe that many meetings have been strengthened and souls won thereby.

Early in 11th month, Barclay Jones, a minister of Iowa Yearly Meeting, joined us in the work, remaining until 1st month. Series of meetings were held by him at Pelham, Bloomfield, and Wellington, also assisting Wm. Allen in meetings which the latter had commenced at Wooler, and which were especially owned by the Lord in a large number of conversions.

Wm. Allen sojourned for some three months of 1891 at Wooler, and we believe was a means of blessing to that meeting. The winter months were spent by him in service in different parts of the Yearly Meeting.

Special meetings were held at Uxbridge, Milldale, Norwich, and other places, by various workers; altogether during the year there have been over 260 special meetings held under the care of the committee.

We regret the removal of two devoted workers in Fred and Olive Ryon, who removed to another Yearly Meeting in second month.

We have had requests for help from various meetings, which we have not been able to give.

We have not undertaken any new work, not having sufficient workers or funds to open and care for more fields. Way did not open for work in the North-West, as brought to the notice of the meeting last year, but we believe the call to Gospel work there is pressing on the hearts of more than one.

One or two changes in the location of workers have been
