Breezy Bits
A Corker

Pat went to a druggist to get an empty bottle. Selecting one that answered his purpose, he asked: "How much?" "Well," said the clerk, "if you want the empty bottle it'll be one cent, but if you have something put in it we won't charge anything for the bottle." "Sure, that's fair enough," observed Pat. "Put in a cork."

Grounds for Divorce

Mrs. Newly wed (weeping) Henry, I am sure I have grounds for divorce. I am positive that you have deceived me! "How much?" "Well," said the clerk, "if you want the empty bottle it'll be one cent, but if you have something put in it we won't charge anything for the bottle." "Sure, that's fair enough," observed Pat. "Put in a cork."

Charity

"Please, kind lady," said the wayfarer, "I ain't had a bite to eat in 24 hours." "You are just the man I'm looking for," replied the lady of the house. "My husband gathered a mess of mushrooms this morning, and I want to make sure they are not toadstools. Just wait a moment and I'll bring you a dish of them."

Not for Pat

Paddy, the bodman, was a new arrival on the job. Having gone to the top of the building and failed to return, the foreman shouted up: "Come on Paddy; what's keeping you?" "Sure," cried Paddy, "I can't find my way down."

The Judge's Evidence

"How do you know this handkerchief was yours?" demanded the justice. "You can see it is of a peculiar make, your worship," replied the witness; "that is the way I know it." "Are you aware, sir," shouted the justice, drawing a similar one from his pocket, "that there are others like it?" "Indeed I am," replied the questioned one, still more placidly. "I had two others."

Looked Bad for Murphy

Murphy was in the hospital and had undergone an operation. As he was recovering he remarked to the patient on his right: "I am thankful that's over." "Oh, exclaimed the patient, 'at my operation the doctor left the scissors in side and I had to undergo the same again.' The patient on the left remarked that at his operation the sponge had been left and had to be gone again. Just as they had finished talking the doctor appeared at the door and asked: "Has anyone seen my hat?" It was then that Murphy fainted.

Had Good Intention

Jim Smith was a notoriously slow payer. He owed quite a bill at the grocery for pork. One day as his credit was becoming strained, he walked calmly into the grocery and said: "Mr. Black, I want to pay you for the pork I have had, and I want some more." "Certainly," said the delighted proprietor, as he hastened to wait on his customer. Taking his package of pork, Jim Smith started to go. "Wait a minute," said the proprietor. "I thought you wanted to pay for the pork." "I do," remarked Jim, as he resumed his homeward way, "but I can't."

MOTHER SEIGEL'S SYRUP

The proof of Mother Seigel's Syrup is in the taking. That is why former sufferers, whose vitality was being sapped by indigestion, say it is just excellent for stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Thanks to Mother Seigel's Syrup, they are now strong and well.

IS EXCELLENT FOR
If you are afflicted by indigestion or other disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels take Mother Seigel's Syrup regularly for a few days; long enough to give it a fair chance to make its beneficial influence felt. Then note the improvement in your appetite, your strength, your general condition.

HEADACHES, BILIOUSNESS, CONSTIPATION, INDIGESTION.

This bottle of Syrup contains three times as much as the 50c size.

Canadian Paints To Foreign Countries

Further evidence of the fact that Canadian manufactures are availing themselves of the present opportunity to strengthen their position in markets, is contained in an announcement made by Mr. George Henderson, President of Brampton-Henderson, Limited, at the company's annual sales convention which has just been concluded.

Practical Health Hints

The Medicine Bottle

In order to avert the most serious thing of having a child take the wrong medicine mothers should adhere to the following rules:

- Never give medicine in the dark.
- Always read the label on the bottle.
- Never go by the color of the medicine.
- When the bottle is refilled see that the label reads clear.
- Keep poisons locked up.
- Keep all bottles locked up in a drawer or medicine chest.
- Mistakes of giving children cathartic acid and such like poisons in the night time make it imperative that mothers study and adhere to these rules, for sometimes such inadvertent mistakes bring about terrible conclusions.

He Got His Interview

The quick wit of a travelling salesman was severely tested one day. He sent in his card to the manager of a large concern, whose inner office was separated from the waiting room by a glass partition. When the boy handed the card to the manager the salesman saw him impatiently tear the card in two and throw it in his waste basket.

Don't Fret

No mental attitude is more disastrous to personal happiness and to personal usefulness in the world than worry and its vicious twin brother, despondency. The remedy for the evil lies in training the will to cast off cares and seeking a change of occupation when the first warning is sounded by nature in intellectual lassitude. Relaxation is the foe of worry and "don't fret" one of the healthiest of maxims.

Meeting The Wounded

New England Shows Her Gratitude to Those Who Have Faced Peril For Her

(From Pearson's Weekly.)

Among the myriads of ways in which our people try to repay a little of the gratitude owing to our soldiers, and not the least trifling, is that chosen by the workers who have charged themselves with the duty of meeting the trains of wounded at our main stations to convey the broken soldiers in comfort and security to hospitals.

"Imperial" Engines

The first cost of a motor engine is important. The life of the engine is also important. Some engines wear only a short time. Others go on doing duty for years; The cooling or water circulation has a lot to do with it. This an "Imperial" has. You can run the "Imperial" at the highest speed and yet keep it as cool as you wish.
