WOODSTOCK.

Committed for Trial -A Fredericton Man in Trouble-A Fine Moose,

WOODSTOCK, Nov. 22.-Jas. Mc. Guire, charged with breaking into Wilmot Balloch's store at Centreville and stealing goods to the value of about one hundred dollars, was arested by Deputy Sheriff Foster and appeared before the police magistrate today. He was committed for trial at the circuit court, which meets here on the 30th.

Two young men, Asa Hartsgrove and Snider, the latter said to hail from Fredericton, have been arrested on a charge of assaulting and robbing two pedlars named Abood and Hedad some weeks ago on the Tobique road The prisoners were on the way to the woods. They admit the assault but deny the robbery. They are now in jail at Andover.

Jordan Prosser of Windsor shot a magnificent moose on the Nashwaak back of Hartland. It had a splendid pair of antiers, measuring 49 inches from the to the and beautifully formed. George Saunders bought the head

THE COURTS

The equity court was engaged on Thursday and Friday morning hearing the case of Brown v. the Sumner Co. of Moncton. The plaintiff set up that the defendants as his agents had got out lumber and were to deduct their charges and hand the batance over to him. The defendants denied any agency and claimed that Brown at the time was insolvent and owed, among other people, the defendants to the amount of about $1,000, and that they themselves had carried on the lumbering transactions, Brown rendering what assistance he could in the poor health he had at that time, and that the defendants had agreed out of sympathy to credit him with the profits of the operation. They credited the plaintiff with about $250, which they claimed was the profits of the undertaking, and by their answer set up they were under no legal obligations to account, but that had gratuitously promised

Brown the profits they had given Judge Barker suggested that the plaintiff accept the willingness of the defendants to account on this basis, as the same result practically fol-

Mr. Chandler on behalf of the plaintiff accepted the judge's suggestion.

Mr. Powell on behalf of the defendants stated that the accounts must basis of the defendants' answer, which denied all liability. This was accepted and the accounts now go to a referee.

Before Judge McLeod in the admiralty court the argument in Palmer v. ship Scammell was continued C. A. Falmer, Q. C., and A. A. Stockton, Q. C., for plaintiff; A. H. Han-ington, Q. C., and Allen O. Barle, Q. C., for defendants. The case now turns on the right of a minority in value of the owners to institute a restraint action after a charter party had been made, to the making of which the plaintiff had not previously given notice of his dissent. Another point which arises is whether the court, if the majority should be willing to give security for the return of the ship to the jurisdiction, can order that the minority be given control upon giving similar security.

The case of Jones v. McLeod was before the court Saturday. This is a case where the defendant was sued on one of the Heber F. Sharp notes. He is a clerk in the Intercolonial railway offices and Judge Forbes made an order for him to pay $3 a month until the debt was paid. He did not cbey the order and now the plaintiff asks for an attachment against him for contempt. The point is now taken that he is a civil servant and an order can not be made against him. A special case will be agreed upon and the point settled by the full court. A. A. Stockton, Q. C., for defendant, and J. King Kelley, contra.

In the admiralty court the case of Palmer v. ship Fred E. Scammell was continued all day Saturday, the counsel presenting their arguments. Judge McLeod decided that the person registered as the owner of shares was person entitled to make the affidavit required to lead the warrant, and that the court would not regard the fact that he was merely a trustee. As to the point raised that a part owner who had not given notice of dissent from a charter party, could not bring a restraint action after the charter party had been entered into, he decided on the authority of The Palca, L. R. 5, Prob. Div. 169, that the making or existence of a charter party was no bar to a restraint action. He therefore dismissed the application to set aside the arrests, A. H. Hanington, Q. C., and A. O. Earle, Q. C., for the application; C. A. Palmer, Q. C., and A. A. Stockton, Q. C., contra.
