A DIVORCE SUIT

In Which St. John Parties Are Principals.

A Boston correspondent of the Star writes of a divorce case in that city in which former St. John parties are the principals, but which is not yet finally settled. The case has been before the courts, but it is expected that the absolute decree of divorce will not be granted for a month or two.

The plaintiff in the suit was at one time connected with a prominent dry goods establishment in St. John, and was married while here. For some years he and his wife have been living in Boston, where he has been interested in promoting different concerns.

As plaintiff in the action for divorce he made the charge of desertion, but when the evidence was taken it seemed to show that the wife had more cause for complaint and that it was the husband who had deserted.

As the affair stands at present it is understood that the husband will pay fifty dollars per month alimony until the final decree is granted. This decree will carry with it the sum of five thousand dollars alimony. Judgment has not yet been delivered, but this will in all probability be the arrangement.

Both husband and wife are well known here.

THE PUBLIC LIBRARIES.

The public libraries are about to close in the near future for the summer holidays. The library on Germain street closing on June 29th, and the branch library on Main street not until the 11th of July. This necessitates, of course, the calling in of all books that are now out, which gives the librarians some extra work just at present. The libraries will probably re-open some time in August.

In the main library new books are mostly bought in the fall and winter, a number at a time, while in the branch library the system is followed of buying the new books as they come out, one at a time, and in this manner keeping up with the current literature. One of the librarians said that more reading seemed to be done, and more books were taken from the library during the winter and until early spring than earlier in the season.

So many card holders leave town in the early summer, not to return until autumn, that, even should the libraries not close, the summer would prove rather dull for that line of business.

PLUMBING CONTRACTS.

Henry Dunbrack has been awarded the contract for plumbing and heating in W. C. Cross' new house on Germain street. Work on this house was begun just a few days ago. It is to be of wood, two stories high.

William Kiley will do the plumbing and heating in Rev. Charles Collins' new house at Fairville.

Neil Brodie is architect for both these buildings.

The GOLDEN EAGLE millers get wheat from the best lands in Canada; most of that isn't good enough. What we do use for GOLDEN EAGLE has a large percentage of gluten and other healthful ingredients in it. GOLDEN EAGLE millers are the most skillful and experienced in the world. They have had thirty years of experience. They have the latest developments in machinery to help them. Their skill comes in getting all the best from the wheat, and rejecting all that is inferior.

LOTS OF WORK.

A Great Many Buildings Being Erected in St. John,

And the Different Craftsmen Have More Work Than They Can Easily Handle.

Although it may be commonly understood that quite a lot of building is being done in St. John this season, there are but few who realize the true extent of the work. Never since the time of the fire have so many buildings been in course of erection and never have the different craftsmen been so busy. All lines are rushed with work and the supply of competent artisans is far below the demand.

Just now there is a slump in proposals of buildings and it is not probable that many more, which are not already under way, will be begun, but there are enough now in course of erection, or for which plans have been perfected, to keep all the available builders in the city hustling for some months yet.

The majority of the new buildings are residences, and these are of every variety. But few business places are being put up, although these few are, as a rule, large buildings, and almost all of them are of brick. Most of the houses are of wood. So great has been the demand for carpenters, painters, bricklayers and masons that contractors are running behind in their work and are offering higher wages than at ordinary times, in the hope of securing men. One prominent firm is paying $4.50 per day for bricklayers and even at this rate cannot get enough men. Plumbers, too, will have their hands full for the greater part of the summer and fall. Although they have by no means been idle during the past month or two the rush in the plumbing line has not yet really commenced, for the new buildings are not in a sufficiently advanced stage. But as they near completion, and as all require plumbing, the men who are a source of capital for the comic papers will have their hands full.

ANOTHER SUICIDE.

Stephen A. Morse a Medford Motor-man Uses a Knife on Himself.

MEDFORD, Mass., June 19.—After a search of several days, particularly in by more than a hundred employees of the Boston Elevated R. R. Co., Stephen A. Morse, a motorman, who disappeared early this morning, was found in the woods at the edge of the Forest about 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. He had a severe knife wound in his throat, and at the hospital to which he was removed, his case was said to be desperate. Morse left his home at four o'clock this morning apparently to take his car from the barn, but did not appear for duty. Then Morse's fellow employees learned of his disappearance they started out to make a thorough search of the woods. The first trace of the missing man came with the discovery of splashes of blood at the edge of the ferns near the Malden line. From this point a series of blood spots marked a path to a little thicket where Morse was found lying on the ground, conscious, but helpless, with a deep gash in his throat. He was very weak, and had only strength enough to speak a few words with those who found him. "There is no one to blame but myself for this," he said, and lost consciousness.

Although a thorough search has been made, no trace of a knife or any sharp instrument has been found on Morse's person or anywhere in the vicinity of where he was found. Morse has a wife and two small children and is about 35 years old.

BRIEFS BY WIRE.

IS HE HERE NOW?

A Methodist Clergyman Who Forgot to Pay.

When the last Methodist conference was held in St. John, quite a few years ago, there was a lady, a member of one of the city churches, who agreed to entertain two delegates. The accommodations in her home were not too commodious and in promising to do her share she stated that she had only one available room, which should be occupied by both clergymen. When conference time arrived a cab drove up to the house and a clergyman alighted. He was warmly greeted, but the greeting changed to expressions of wonder when it was learned that he had brought his wife and family with him. They could not be accommodated, so other arrangements were made and two other clergymen who were unaccompanied by families were sent to the house.

One morning one of these asked the hostess if there was a shoemaker's shop handy, and upon being informed that there was one just a few doors away announced that he wished to have a pair of boots half soled. The hostess offered to have them sent to the shop and have her offer accepted with thanks. The boots were repaired and returned to the owner who was properly grateful for the little kindness shown him.

Now, the meetings of conference are of a serious nature, where much business is transacted and it is not to be wondered at that being deeply interested in the proceedings, all other matters of smaller importance should slip from the clergyman's mind, but the fact remains that he forgot to pay for the boots, and the lady who sent them to the shoemaker had to foot the bill. She would not think of mentioning the matter to the minister at the time, and regards the whole affair as a joke, but the president and many friends, who remember the circumstances, are wondering if the delegate will think of his unpaid bill.

MRS. BARNEY'S MEETINGS.

Mrs. J. K. Barney of Providence, R. I., superintendent of the States' prison work of the International W. C. T. U., will speak twice tomorrow in the Victoria Rink. At 7 p. m. she will lecture on "Processions," and in the evening at 8:30 her subject will be the "Need of the Hour."

At both services special singing will be furnished by the "Temple" Male Quartette and members of the Boys' Mission. Walter Nixon, the popular young whistler, will render selections at both meetings. An orchestra will assist in the praise service. All singers are invited to assist on the platform, which are being placed in the ring especially for this occasion.

Ald. Maxwell will occupy the chair in the evening. The Boys' Mission will give Mrs. Barney a reception in the Victoria Rink at the Alexandra Hotel, 103 Charlotte Street, tonight. Mrs. Barney arrives on the Boston boat today. Mrs. Barney will also lecture on Monday evening in the Carleton Baptist church. Walter Nixon and other musicians from the mission will take part.

JUNIOR BASEBALL.

The Jubilees of the North End defeated the Royals of Fairville on Tumbleby's hill last evening in a score of 9-0. Johnny Murphy pitched for the Jubilees and had thirteen strikes out for the five innings.

The Maritimes defeated the Silver Stars on Miller's field by a score of 2-0.

Very special meetings are to be held at No. 1 barracks Charlotte street tomorrow (Sunday) conducted by Lieut. Colonel Sharp, the officer in command of the Salvation Army in the Maritime Provinces and Bermuda. He will be assisted by Mrs. Sharp, Staff Capt. and Mrs. Turpin, also Ensign Flemming and others. The hours for the different services are as follows: 7 and 11 a. m. and 3 and 7:30 p. m. Ensign Flemming's singing and guitar playing, Col. and Mrs. Sharp's speaking will no doubt be an attraction to secure a large crowd.

At the Tabernacle tomorrow, Rev. A. Lucas, Prov. Sec'y. of S. S., will preach at the morning service, and Rev. G. W. Fisher of Moncton will preach in the evening at 7 o'clock.

Special.—Soft wood cut in stove lengths, $1.15 per big load at Vattiers', Walker's Wharf. Tel. 612.

NOTHING SECOND-RATE.

Day after day, week in and week out, we talk goods and prices until people are apt to take the store for granted, and accept for a fact that we have whatever they happen to need. The business is growing all the time, and new things come so fast that you need to be constantly reminded. But filling the paper with bargains isn't half so effective in winning your trade as the impression that goods here are new and reliable, prices fair, salespeople courteous, service perfect and advertising honest. We insist that everything here shall be exactly as represented, and when we say that, we lift the business above the common place.

You can judge the store by these things as well as anything:

Mr. Nagle says that he understands that there was to have been a race on the Shamrock grounds between these two sprinters, but that on account of some hitch it has not yet taken place. He wishes to race either one of the two men or both, for any purse that may be agreed upon, the challenged parties to name their own conditions. Upon notice of the acceptance of his challenge Mr. Nagle will deposit fifty or one hundred dollars with any newspaper or any sporting man in St. John.
