motors of ten street cars were burned out and traffic suspended for some time in consequence. The first announcement of Auditor

General McDougall's letter of resignation was made by your correspondent in advance of all other Canadian papers. The auditor general in his letter to the minister of finance says the chief reason which induced him to take this step is stubborn refusal of the administration to consent to such an amendment of the audit act as would satisfactorily define his functions and henceforth avoid repetition of the many wrangles that have token place in the past. As the Journal says to-night, the most unfortuna's feature of the case is that McDougail's request to be relieved of his present intolerable position by the first of July will enable the government to appoint a creature of its own at a time when enormous expenditures are contemplated under the Grand Trunk Pacfile deal. Bell, Kemp and Cargrain have been deputed to represent the opposition at Madame Tarte's funeral tomorrow in Montreal.

Hon. Mr. Fielding gave a big garden party on parliament grounds this afternoon. The weather was perfect.
