WHAT THE NAVY MEANS TO CANADA AND THE EMPIRE

Canada owes many millions of the money that goes to make up its material prosperity, from year to year, to the protection of the British navy. Canadian trade and commerce figures prove this beyond the shadow of a doubt.

The products of farm and factory alike are conserved and literally conveyed to the markets of the world, to the ever-increasing profit of the Canadian producer, by the eternal vigilance of the ships of the British navy.

Canadians Responding. It is gratifying, therefore, to note that Canadians are beginning to realize that it is their duty to do the share of the British Navy, as well as the khaki of the British army, and thus bear their fair share of the burden of the defense of the Empire in these trying times.

The rescript, as transmitted by Reuters' Petrograd correspondent is in part as follows:

"Having entrusted you with the responsible post of president of the council of ministers, I deem it opportune to point out to you the pressing problems, the solution of which should be the main object of the government's attention.

DWELLING AT APOHAQUI IS DESTROYED

Cottage of Mrs. Henry Parlee, Owned by Jones Bros., Burned—Other Buildings Threatened.

Special to The Standard. APOHAQUI, Jan. 21.—This village was the scene of a most serious fire this afternoon when about 2:30 o'clock a cottage on George street, owned by Jones Bros., and occupied by Mrs. Henry Parlee, was totally destroyed. All the occupants were out at the time and it is supposed that the fire caught from the kitchen stove which had been left full of fuel.

The whole interior of the house was full of smoke and flames before it was noticed and consequently nothing was saved except a few articles of furniture from one room on the ground floor. It looked at one time as though the whole south side of the street was doomed as the buildings are only twenty feet apart, but the heroic efforts of the citizens with the aid of a Liberal water supply, the use of a chemical engine and a number of hand extinguishers from the premises of Jones Bros., saved the situation and confined the blaze to the one building.

A call for help was sent to Sussex and Chief Daly and a number of his men rushed to the scene in automobiles but the fire was under control when they arrived. Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Parlee and family as they carried no insurance. The building was insured for a small amount which will cover a part of the loss.

CARDINAL CRITICISES CLERGYMEN

Boston, Jan. 21.—The many clergy-

men in the United States who recently signed a manifesto against the stoppage of war in Europe at this time were severely criticized by the Cardinal, William H. O'Connell, at the annual banquet of the Boston Club of Holy Cross College. The Cardinal referred to what he termed a general confusion of mental procedure in connection with the war. "When we have for years seen the underlying motives for all this terrible destruction and know that ninety-nine per cent. of it is a national jealousy and the rest talk, what are we to think of the column after column of platitudes about small nations and the love of righteousness?" he said. "What are we to think of the ministers of the gospel who rend the air with hysterical cries against concluding a peace or even a truce? What, especially, are we to think of these same individuals, who, when the war began, declared openly that no war was ever justifiable and no country should ever enter any war?"

Rockefeller, Jr., and 16,000 other mortals sat at the feet of Billy Sunday and heard him preach that money has nothing whatsoever to do with the purchasing price of a ticket to Heaven.
