

rule is desired, it must be considered by the Standing Committee, and only permitted when recommended by them and approved by the President, or, in his absence, by two or more of the Vice Presidents.

XII. All Meetings of the Society and of the Committees shall be opened and closed with the prayers used by the two Societies in England, adapted to our situation under the direction of the Bishop.

1. Supplies of Books and Tracts from the stores of the Society for Distribution to the Committee of which General Committee shall be the next place, after which the books must likewise receive the written approbation of the Bishop.
2. Missionary visits to neglected and declining places, under the direction of the Bishop.
3. Upholding by all possible and proper means the Collegiate Establishments at Windsor.
4. Assistance to deserving young men, students of being admitted to the study of the Church, but requiring aid in pursuing their studies at the College of Exeter, at 17 Exeter.
5. Aid to Sunday and other Schools, in which due attention is paid to instruction in the principles of the Established Church.
6. Recommendation to the instruction and training of respectable Teachers for Sunday and Day Schools.
7. Assistance to the erection or enlargement of Churches and Chapels belonging to the Established Religion, in peculiar or extreme cases.

To these objects, generally, the personal contributions will be applied; while contributors who desire it may have their individual contributions separately confined to any one or more of these objects. And as some Members of the Church, who are not unmindful of the great spiritual evils in their own neighbourhood, still feel constrained in their gratitude for the blessings they enjoy to dole something, however small, from the means with which a gracious Providence has blessed them, towards the spread of the glorious Gospel among the nations, which still sit in darkness—

2. This Society will gladly receive and forward to the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel whatever sums may be given for the conversion and instruction of the Heathen, to whom object such sums will be chiefly confined by the East India Company of that Society.

XI. Books and Tracts will generally be on sales at our own charges;—and whenever in particular cases a deviation from this
