Hillsboro, Albert Co., March 4.—A very enjoyable affair took place on Saturday evening at the club rooms of the Hillsboro Reform and Literary Club, the event being the cellebration of the second anniversary of the club and the election of officers for of the club and the election of officers for the next year. After the regular busi-ness of the meeting was completed Dr. B. A. Marven, on behalf of the members, presented the following address accompan-ied by a handsome chair: U. F. Taylor, President H. R. & L. Club: We, the members of the Hillsboro Re-form and Literary Club, take this oppor-tunity while celebration the second anni-

tunity while celebrating the second anni versary of our club to remember you by presenting you with this chair as a slight token of the high esteem in which you token of the high esteem in which you are held by officers and members. Our club, though only two years old, has en-joyed a rapid and healthy growth and we take pleasure in recognizing this fact that your efforts, your endness, your gener-osity have materially assisted in making our club what it is. May you long be spared to assemble with us and participate in our deliberations and when the infirm-ities of age that come to all who live long overtake you may you sit at ease by your fireside in this chair. long overtake you may you sit at ease by your fireside in this chair. The election of officers then took place, W. F. Taylor being re-elected president, Dr. B. A. Marven elected 1st vice-president; Geo. A. Steeves, 3rd vice-president; H. S. Taylor, secretary and J. J. Blake treas-urer. The members were treated to an excellent lunch provided by the president. The club enters on its third year in a highly satisfactory condition. New memese member from the Island of Kauai was elected speaker of the house and Dr. Nicholas Russell, of Hawaii, a white man vas chosen president of the senate. On the third day Secretary of the Ter ritory Cooper was unceremoniously order-The club enters on its third year in a highly satisfactory condition. New mem-bers are constantly being added. There is a nice balance in the treasury. Har-mony prevails among the members. Two years ago when this club was organized our Tory friends predicted the utter fai-ure, but instead of failure not one weekly session has been omitted and this the end of its second year finds it far stronger than was expected by the most sanguine members. Alas for Tory predictions, they always fail to realize. The Hillsboro Cor-net band, under the leadership of Prof. Chas. Hayes, of St. John, was present on this occasion and rendered several choice ed out of the house and escorted out by the sergeant-at-arms. Acting under the section of the territorial act which provides that he "shall record and preserve the laws and proceedings of the legisla ture," Secretary Cooper took a place on the floor of the house with a stenograph to secure a record of the proceedings. Representative Beckley (Independent) of Representative Beckley (Independent) of fered a resolution requiring him to leave. The resolution set forth that his presence on the floor was a violation of the rule that the three departments of the govern chas. Hayes, of St. John, was present on this occasion and rendered several choice selections during the evening. This band is the legitimate offspring of the Hillsboro Reform and Literary Club, but will not take second place today with any band within the province. Great credit much nent-executive, judicial and legislativemust be kept separate and it was urged in debate that Governor Dole had put Cooper where he was with a view to intimidating members by letting them see that the executive officer was taking a within the province.
