

Stable Government Canada's Great Need !

A "CANADA FIRST" POLICY

The realization of this fact is resulting in a great swing towards the Conservative Party

Vote for the Conservative Party and break the deadlock.

If there is another Government without a working majority it will mean disaster to our prosperity. Canada is on the threshold of a period of great forward movement. We have the resources that the world needs. The only check upon our prosperity is the political situation at Ottawa, which has caused lack of confidence in the part of the commercial world. It is the feeling that, for the sake of the welfare of Canada, there must be stable government, which is causing the decided swing towards the Conservative Party.

Although the customs scandal demands position in this election as "a foremost issue"—to use the words of The Globe—the platform upon which Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen and his candidates appealed in the last campaign still stands. Not a plank has been altered or withdrawn.

The Conservative party is pledged to restore the protective principal in the fiscal policy of Canada—"principle and practice upon which all can rely, upon which industry and workers can depend, but a principle and practice which none will be permitted to abuse."

The party led by Mr. Meighen will inaugurate a practical vigorous and fruitful immigration policy and endeavour, by providing employment for Canadians in Canada, to keep our people at home.

Mr. Meighen has announced a co-operative marketing policy that will enable the farmers of Canada to build up a marketing system "which will compare in efficiency with that of any agricultural country in the world."
