Mike Gibbons and O. Dowd The Combatants.

St. Paul, Minn. Nov. 21.—Mike
O'Dowd, middleweight champion, and Mike Gibbons, the St. Paul phantom, fought a terrific bloody 10-round bout here to-night. The fight was vicious and close all the shade.

Delegations of boxing writers and fight enthusiasts from many eities arrived in St. Paul this morning, and paraded through the business sections behind a band, while Middleweight Champion Mike O'Dowd and Mike Gibbons were making final preparations for their 10-round bout toxicht.

Gibbons and O'Dowd were both

Gibbons and O'Dowd were both under the required weight of 158 pounds, according to announcement made by their managers. The men are to weigh in at 3 o'clock this afternoon and unless O'Dowd changes his mind after seeing Gibbons on the scales, the weighing process is to be repeated at the ringside. Miter considerable squabbling the principals agreed upon "Curly" Ulrich, of St. Paul, as referce, but there was a possibility that some other twin City official might be chosen at the last moment, partly as a result that one of the members of the state boxing commission was opposed to the election of Ulrich.

Private bills, sponsored by individual government members on the private bills and the members concerned. This practice filled the members with chagrin during sessions of the Private Bills Committee on previous occasions. In fact, the private member is going to find himself invested with new powers and afforded delightful opportunities for showing his calibre. Instead of being a "bump on a log" perforce, be will be given encouragement to bring forward proposals for the good of the province. Only the more important measures favored by the cabinet will be made government.

SECOND MAN IS NOW ON TRIAL ON MURDER

Counsel For Defense Withdrew Motion For Postp derstanding That Crown Would Call Certain For Cross Examination.

HEARING OPENED THIS MORNING.

The trial of the second of the two accused in the Galt murder case. Stoyko Boyeff, is proceeding. It opened this morning.

The counsel for the accused, Mr. M. Secord, K.C., on the promise of the Crown to call certain witnesses so he could examine them withdrew his motion for a postponement of the hearing. Witnesses whom Mr. Secord asked for are Dr. Deakin and Mr. Little the Galt undertaker in the case.

The court, presided, over by Mr. Justice Logie, then proceeded with the selecting and swearing in of the jurymen. This took considerable time, the complete state of jurors being used before, twelve men were secured, satisfactory to both the Crown and the defense. None of the jury which heard the Petcoff case are on this ury.

The Crown prosecutor, Mr. J. Matins, said is fact that another man has been any fate of the deceased the fact that another man has been any fate of the deceased in the fate of the deceased in the fate of the murder of Sorokoty, sould not greate the impression with is jurymen that a second man could it be convicted of the same offense.
