

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., JULY 16, 1897.

Editorial Chat.

Ratepayers in arrears for taxes on water-rates will be interested in an announcement in another column. We understand it is the intention of the authorities to make no exceptions this time. The proposed changes in the water rates cannot take effect before the first of next year. Rates now due must be paid in accordance with the scale now in force.

Hot weather has come to us at last, and the papers this week have had accounts of numerous deaths and prostrations from the heat in most of the U. S. cities. As a result we may expect an increased influx of tourists to our town. Wolfville with its beautiful scenery, cool breezes and pleasant drives and walks proves a haven of refuge to the inhabitants of the hot and crowded cities at this season.

The committee appointed by the town council last week to confer with the management of the Dominion Atlantic railway with regard to the widening of Elm avenue from Front street to the railway station has been successful. The management met them in a most generous manner and readily consented to the changes asked for. They will also furnish two train-loads of gravel for levelling and grading. These changes when carried out will be of great benefit to the town both from the standpoint of appearance and convenience.

As will be seen by notice in another column a public meeting has been called for Monday evening, August 2nd, when the subject of sewerage will be up for discussion. The matter is a most important one and there should be a full attendance of ratepayers. Sufficient notice has been given to enable ratepayers to prepare themselves to discuss the matter understandingly. It is to be hoped that our citizens will get all information possible before the meeting so as to be prepared for the discussion and that the outcome of the meeting may be such as will advance the best interests of the town.

Beach Echoes.

Evangeline Beach formally opened for summer season on Friday last. As the Wolfville Band was not yet organized and the merry-go-round was not yet completed, the opening was not widely advertised as formerly, consequently the attendance on that day was small. We hope however, in the near future to have a day when both these necessary adjuncts to pleasure will be present.

Since before the opening day this season has been visited by a number of private parties from Wolfville, Kentville, Canard and Windsor.

Mr. and Mrs. D'Almeida and family have taken up their abode at the Beach for the season.

Next week will be a good one for bathers, as the tide serves in the afternoon. Come down on your "bike" and have a dip.

Parties from Kentville, Wolfville, Grand Pre and other places have engaged the four cottages which are now in process of erection.

This week while people in town were suffering from the great heat those who visited the Beach were delighted to find it cool and breezy even through the sunniest part of the day.

Belcom's Beach Express commenced its usual summer tour to and from Evangeline Beach, on Monday of this week. This cheap and delightful drive has been fully taken advantage of by the tourists who are residing in our town.

There has been lots of excitement in town this week. A carriage was overturned one evening, throwing the occupants out. The next day a gentleman from White Rock, ran his team into that of a lady from Canard, with the result that the White Rock man had his carriage badly smashed. A well known resident of our town was driving down Highland avenue when his horse stepped on a stone and fell, upsetting the carriage, and smashing it considerably. Last, but not most amusing of all, was the collision between two ancient female pedestrians, who met at the corner of Linden avenue and Main street. One of the old dames had on her arm a large basket, containing a dozen or so boxes of strawberries, while the other had her arms full of "bargains." They met, and great was the meeting thereof. The strawberries went flying hither and thither, being comically intermingled with the "reduced to 5 cents" cotton. The old ladies gave expression to their thoughts in appropriate language. Could we afford space for any quotations they would be found quite easy.

The officers of Wolfville Division for the current quarter are as follows: W. P. Howard, A. Moore, W. A. — Miss Ernie Bishop, R. S. — B. O. Davison, A. R. S. — Miss Grace Patrician, F. S. — Miss Sadie Shaw, Treas. — Miss Edith Toye, Chap. — G. V. Rand, Comd. — Mrs. B. O. Davison, A. Gend. — Miss B. L. Fader, I. S. — Miss Cecilia Eastwood, O. S. — Miss Ethel Eastwood.

The meetings of the Division are being well attended and the members manifest a lively interest in the work of the order.

From the Ancient World.

Messrs. Grenfell and Hutton have discovered on the borders of the Libyan deserts one of the oldest papyri known, bearing the words of Christ.

The value of this find in the interest of the world is incalculable. It comprises a dozen leaves, each 5 1/2 by 3 1/2 inches in size, remarkably well preserved, and clearly written in uncial characters of the ancient Greek, and dates about 60 years after the crucifixion. It has been translated, and is found to consist of detached sayings of Christ, without context, each beginning with the words, "Jesus saith."

The translation will soon be published by the Egypt Exploration Fund. An immense edition at a few pence a copy, will be provided, so as to reach every body.

Other discoveries have been lately made in Egypt of almost incalculable value. Large rolls of papyri have been unearthed, that cover a wide range of literature, poetry, law and ethics. The contents of this new discovery, range from the first to the sixth century, and has furnished to the literary archaeologist at least as many papyri as have hitherto existed in the whole of Europe. The discoverer expects that 10 to 20 years will be occupied before the papyri are fully deciphered.

Canning.

Prof. Russell and wife, of Truro, are visiting at Mrs. Chas. Miller's.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick and son are visiting her mother, Mrs. Wickwire.

Mrs. A. M. Lockwood representing "The Golden Milling Co." of Ontario, is in town.

Miss Roy of Maitland, Hants Co., spent Sunday with Mrs. W. H. Fellows.

Quite a number of Americans are staying at the different hotels.

The new dike across the river is progressing favorably. The heavy tide caused a failure in the first attempt to place the sluice.

Quite a building boom seems to have struck Canadling. Mr. H. G. Martin has built a handsome store. The R. W. Kinsman Co. have purchased three stores which they intend to tear down and replace with a large block. Many dwellings also have been greatly improved.

Mr. A. D. Payson has completely altered the inside of his house, putting in new floors and stairways. He has also graded the front yard and built a terrace along the west side of the house.

There are two Presbyterian ministers in Winnipeg, both Nova Scotians and laborers for a time in this Province.

Rev. Joseph Hogg, of St. Andrew's Church, where the late Assembly met, is a native of Clyde River, Shelburne, and has been nine years in Winnipeg.

When seventeen years of age Mr. Hogg obtained a first-class license, and taught in three superior schools in Nova Scotia. He has been an extensive traveller, having visited large portions of Canada, United States, Europe, Asia, and Africa.

Since his settlement at Winnipeg the congregation have built the finest manse in the city and a grand church. Four years ago Rev. C. B. Fitch was settled as pastor of Westminster Church. When called there the membership was only 65.

Since grown to 230. Mr. Fitch came from Scotland to Nova Scotia when a boy, and worked with his father on the Intercolonial Railway. During the Riel rebellion he went to the front as chaplain of the Halifax battalion, and was one of the company that brought Riel from Batouche to Regina. He was once pastor of Chalmers' church, Halifax, and has long been a prominent Freemason.

T. H. Blenus, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Cornwallis, Kings county, died on Saturday morning, the 10th inst. Mr. Blenus was nearly 82 years of age and was widely known as a man of sterling integrity and honesty of purpose. Blessed during the greater part of his life with great strength of mind and body, his hand and heart were ever ready to answer the demands of neighbor and friend. His death removed one of the old landmarks of the community in which he was so long, so well, and favorably known. The interment took place on Sunday afternoon in the family lot of the Church street, Cornwallis, Episcopal cemetery, Rev. de Reid, of the Baptist church, and Axford of the Episcopal church, officiating. The deceased has been a member of the Christian church for more than 50 years.

Cape Negro, Shelburne Co., has an old lady who will be 99 years of age if she lives till September. Her name is Mrs. Rebecca Slate, and she has two sisters, Mrs. Rachel Swaine and Mrs. Temperance Hustin, twins, 95; another sister, Mrs. Abbie Swaine, is ninety-two, and a brother, J. Freeman Swaine, 84. Mrs. Slate has good eyesight, and sews and knits without the aid of glasses. She is yet able to go out, and quite frequently calls upon neighbors. Her sisters and brother are also enjoying good health. This family certainly takes the prize for longevity. Mrs. Slate is undoubtedly the oldest person to-day living in Shelburne county. — Yarmouth Herald.

Miss Annie M. McLean, M. A., of Acadia, has lately received the degree of Master of Philosophy from Chicago University. Her thesis, "Factory Legislation for Women in the United States," has been very highly commended, and will be published in the American Journal of Sociology.

Miss L. A. Scott left yesterday for her home in Poplar Grove, Hants county, to spend her vacation. Miss Scott has for a number of years had charge of the intermediate department of our public schools and has filled the position faithfully. She has won a large place in the hearts of her pupils and the people of Wolfville generally, and all will learn with sincere regret that it is not her intention to remain in our school. The ACADIAN joins a host of friends in wishing every success in her future field of labor.

A Society of Christian Endeavor was found in the Presbyterian church at Horton on Tuesday evening last, and as that congregation are noted for making a success of everything they undertake, will look for good results. Following is a list of officers appointed:
