

the goods of any other to the value of Forty shillings; he shalbe forthwith apprehended & arrested, detayned and brought Prisoner into England, and the crime committed by him shalbe made known to the Earle Marshall of England for the time being: to whom the Delinquent shall bee delivered as Prisoner; And the said Earle Marshall shal take Cognizance of the cause: And if hee shall finde by the testimony of two witnesses or more, that the partie had there killed a man not being at that time first assaulted by the party slain, or that