

XIX. And in order to provide for the payment of the salaries of the said Justices and other expences aforesaid; be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that from and after the passing of this Act, all and every person who shall take a licence to keep a house or other place of public entertainment in the district of Three Rivers, shall pay to the Clerk of the Peace of the said district, the sum of currency, over and above the duties which every such person is now bound by law to pay.

XX. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that the Clerk of the Peace in the said district, shall keep an exact and particular account of all such monies as shall be by him received, by virtue of and under the authority of this Act, and shall apply the same quarterly, in discharge of the salaries of the said Justices of the Peace, and other expences, incurred by them or by the persons by them employed in the execution of their ministerial duties, which said expences he shall not pay without the order of one of the said Justices, specifying the object for which the said expences have been incurred.

XXI. Provided always, and it is further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that such Clerk of the Peace for the said district, shall render an account every six months, or oftener if required, to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administrating the Government of this Province for the time being, a full and particular account of all monies by him received and paid as aforesaid, with vouchers for the same, which accounts shall be certified upon oath, before the Provincial Judge of the said district, and for his trouble and pains, in the receipt and payment of the said monies, it shall and may be lawful for the said Clerk of the Peace, to retain for his own use and benefit, out of
