

elected a mem. of the Bd. of Ex., Coll. Phys. and Surg., Ont., 1880-81; a mem. of the Med. Coun. of Ont., 1882; Presdt. of the Can. Inst. of Hom., 1891; V. P. of the Can. Med. Coun. Phys. and Surg., Ont., 1892; and Presdt. of do., 1893. Dr. C. has served also as a mem. of the London Bd. of Education for many yrs.; was Chairman of the Bd., 1884; and was likewise Chairman of the Local Bd. of Health. He has attained high rank in the Masonic order, as well as in the Select Knights of Can., and the Royal Arcana. In the Odd-fellows, he was elected to the office of Grand Sire, 1893. He has been a contributor to the mags. and has written a book; "A Round about Ride to Los Angeles and Back" (1888). He m. 1869, Miss E. A. Drake (she d. 1886).—327 Queen's Ave., London, Ont.

CAMPBELL, Francis Wayland, M.D., is the s. of the late Rollo Campbell, formerly publisher of the Montreal Daily Pilot (who was a native of Perthshire, Scot.), and was b. in Montreal, Nov. 5; 1837. Ed. at Dutton's Acad. and at the Bap. Coll., he graduated M. D. at McGill Univ., 1860, and has since practised his profession in Montreal. In 1872, he assisted in founding the Med. Faculty, Univ. of Bishop's Coll., Lennoxville, and became its first Regr. Subsequently, for 10 yrs., he was Prof. of Physiol. there when he was unanimously elected Dean of the Faculty, a position he still retains, holding also the chair of Practice of Med. Dr. C. was for 10 yrs. Secy. of the Coll. of Phys. and Surg., Quebec, and he is now one of the physicians to the Montreal Genl. and Western Hospitals, besides being med. officer of the N. Y. Life Ins. Co., and chief med. officer of the Citizens Ins. Co., of Can. He was one of the editors of the Can. Med. Journal, 1864-72, when he established the Can. Med. Record, of which he remained ed. for 17 yrs., and is still on the editing staff, although no longer prop. Dr. C.'s connection with the V. M. dates from 1860, in which year he was gazetted asst.-surg., 1st. Batt. Prince of Wales Rifle Regt.; promoted surg., 1866, he retained that rank till 1883, when he was apptd. Surg.-Major Royal Regt. of Can. Infantry (permanent corps) attached to the co. stationed at St. John's, P.Q. He was on active service with the Prince of Wales Rifles at Hemmingford and Ormstown, during the Fenian raid, 1866, and at St. John's and Pigeon Hill, during the raid of 1870. In 1894 he established the V. R. I. Mag. and became its first ed. He received the hon. degree of D. C. L. from Lennoxville, 1895. A Lib.-Con. in politics, he is also a strong supporter of the N. P., and of Brit. connection. He is a mem. of the Montreal Mil. Inst., and a P. M. of Victoria Lodge of Freemasons. Dr. C. m., 1861, Miss Agnes Stuart Rodger, Greenock, Scot. His s., Dr. Rollo Campbell, was apptd. Demonstrator of Anatomy in Bishop's Coll., Lennoxville, 1897.—1006 Sherbrooke St., Montreal; St. James's Club.

CAMPBELL, Miss Grace Shybranat, author, is the dau. of Chas. Fitz Henry Campbell, M.D., now practising his profession in N. S., but formerly an officer in the army, by his wife Charlotte Augusta, young dau. of the late Thos. Nevins. Am. Consul in the South of Ireland B. at Birkenhead, Eng., she was ed. privately, and entered the profession of journalism at the age of 26, becoming special correspondent at Moncton, N.B. for the St. John Progress. Later, she became literary ed. of the same paper. At present, she is ed. of the woman's dept. of the Progress. She has also written under the pen-name of "Geoffrey Cuthbert Strange," a number of short stories, reviews and sketches. Miss C. is a mem. of the Ch. of Eng. She is opposed to the ballot as an evidence of the advancement of woman, and considers that "the best way for a woman to win her rights is to be as true and charming a woman as