

No. 13.

STATEMENT of Movement of Convicts at Kingston Penitentiary, from midnight of the 30th June, 1882, until midnight of the 30th June, 1883.

| Description.                   | Male.                             | Female. | Total. | Male. | Female. | Total. |
|--------------------------------|-----------------------------------|---------|--------|-------|---------|--------|
|                                | Remaining on 30th June, 1882..... |         |        |       | 577     | 23     |
| Received since:—               |                                   |         |        |       |         |        |
| From Common Jails .....        | 125                               | 4       | 129    |       |         |        |
| Other Penitentiaries.....      | 4                                 | 3       | 7      | 129   | 7       | 136    |
|                                |                                   |         |        | 706   | 30      | 736    |
| Discharged since:—             |                                   |         |        |       |         |        |
| By Expiration of Sentence..... | 144                               | 8       | 152    |       |         |        |
| Pardon.....                    | 30                                |         | 30     |       |         |        |
| Sent to Lunatic Asylum.....    | 6                                 |         | 6      |       |         |        |
| Death.....                     | 10                                |         | 10     |       |         |        |
| Suicide.....                   | 1                                 |         | 1      |       |         |        |
| Escape.....                    | 3                                 |         | 3      | 194   | 8       | 202    |
|                                |                                   |         |        | 512   | 22      | 534    |