

A lengthy programme of
"ONE PIECE." Hitherto
I have tried to do my best to make the meetings tolerably respectable but "on second thought," and seeing the ingratitude of mankind in — not in general — but in the High School, I have concluded not to trouble myself as much in future. At our fortnightly meetings nobody seems to have sense enough to make a motion — except through the door —, and Mr Forsyth has sometimes to wait fully ten minutes before any has strung his nerves up to such a pitch as to be able to rise, and mumble something and then collapse.

The programmes always consist of instrumental pieces and the "Literary" part of the Society seems to have been totally forgotten.
You know that Huff ~~was~~ against his will was elected 1st Vice President By the Constitution any officer who is absent 3 consecutive meetings of the Committee, must lose his office. Well, Huff broke this clause, so Forsyth made a motion to the effect that the office was to be declared vacant but as usual no one had the courage to make a motion so Huff was allowed to keep his office. ~~At~~ What is the use in having a Constitution if the rules are not to be carried out? Mr Connor
