

- Hahn, Michael, Governor of Louisiana, Lincoln's letter to, 66-67
- Hail Columbia* sung at Union League initiation, 183
- Halleck, General H. W., orders in regard to marriage, 20
- Hampton, General Wade, 174, 175; letter to Johnson, 31; and negro suffrage, 51; and Freedmen's Bureau, 107
- Hampton Institute, 220; teacher's remark on negro education, 211-12
- Hancock, General W. S., commands military department, 141 (note), 163
- Hardee, General W. J., quoted, 244
- Harlan, James, resigns from Cabinet, 131
- Harris, I. G., on Johnson, 72
- Hayes, R. B., candidate for presidency, 296, 297, 298; elected, 300, 301; and radicalism, 302
- Hell Hole Swamp, 234
- Hendricks, T. A., Democratic leader, 122
- Herald*, New York, Knox as correspondent of, 28; on radical reconstruction, 148
- Heroes of America, 179, 245
- Hill, B. H., of Georgia, and "Jim Crow" theory, 277
- Hill, General D. H., of North Carolina, 279 (note)
- Hill, Thomas, President of Harvard, 200
- Holden, W. W., provisional governor of North Carolina, 75, 77, 224, 232; and Union League, 185, 189
- Home Guards, 245
- Howard, General O. O., head of Freedmen's Bureau, 103
- Humphreys, B. G., Governor of Mississippi, opinion of Freedmen's Bureau, 90; advocates civil equality, 91
- Immigration to South, negroes against, 268
- Impeachment of President, 100 et seq.
- Irish, South Carolina imports, 271
- Jackson (Miss.), post-war condition, 5
- Jews in South, 23, 274
- Jillson, school official in South Carolina, 216
- "Jim Crow," car, 95; theory of "separate but equal" rights, 277
- John Brown's Body* sung in Union League initiation, 184
- Johnson, Andrew, amnesty proclamation, 9, 75; policies opposed by Andrews, 28; and negro suffrage, 50, 78; reconstruction policy, 57-58, 73 et seq., 83; military governor of Tennessee, 65; nomination, 70; personal characteristics, 71-72, 73; adopts Lincoln's policy, 73, 88; and Congress, 80 et seq., 118, 119, 120-21, 126 et seq., 238; use of pardoning power, 87; speechmaking tour to the West, 131; impeachment, 158 et seq.; and Stanton, 163-65
- Johnson, Reverdy, 122
- Kansas and negro suffrage, 156, 285
- Kelley, "Pig Iron," of Pennsylvania, 150
- Kellogg, W. P., Governor of Louisiana, 224-25, 294
- Kentucky, Confederates in, 25-26; and abolition of slavery, 36; exception in reconstruction problem, 86
- Knights of the Golden Circle, 176
- Knights of the White Camelia, 237, 246, 251-52, 259
- Knox, T. W., correspondent for New York Herald, 28