

14 BRITAIN'S FINANCIAL EFFORT.

will of the people about the war as a whole—that it should be fought hard, and fought honestly, and brought to an end on a basis that will ensure that no further attack be made by a pirate nation on the liberties of the world.