

pudding Stone. [Sept

or strata as the freestone &c. but always in degenerated bodies of various composed of the same mate-round them, whether el, sand, pieces of slate, cemented together by nating substance. The ow these heterogeneous stratified, and what that ch so firmly consolidates mass. From the follow-ce it should appear, that ration of Nature is carcesses no less expeditious l. Two or three years up on the sea-side a his description, which I me; it was forming nail, the head of which one side, and about an
of the point protruded.
The pebbles are cehinish kind of substance rtar mixed with sand, much tinged by the rust eaving this subject to on of Naturalists, I re-an, your constant reader. correspondent, T. J.

August 11.

izing the inhabitants of doms, in order to assualation, appears to be a difficult thing, from have been taken in it, al difference which ap-counts of different cal-me leave to mention the have been well assured, China. In the late ex-which has been pub-Macarney's Embassy and well-informed seis mentioned in gene-a tenth man in each an account of the numn families of which he
oce. The mode I al-that on a stated day in householder is requi-writing, on the outside correct state of the ined it, which is taken tered by persons ap-purpose. This ren-ing search or imperti-necessary; and, in a
there can be so little ng returns, they may sufficiently correct to answer