No article ever attained such unbounded popularity in so short a time as BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS, and that, too, during the existence of countless numbers of widely advertised bitters and blood purifiers. It is evident that this medicine begins its work at once, and leaves no desirable effect unattained. A ten cent sample bottle will in many cases test its merits. A large bottle only costs one dollar.

PERIODS.

THERE was a bad Indian—a Sioux—Who never would say what he'd dioux;

But one night on the hill
He caught Tom and Bill,
And sliced off the scalp of the dioux.

THE ALPHABET OF LIFE.

Attend carefully to details of your business.

Be prompt in all things.
Consider well, then decide positively.
Dare to do right; fear to do wrong.
Endure trials patiently.

Fight life's battle bravely, manfully.
Go not in the society of the vicious.
Hold integrity sacred.

Injure not another's reputation or business.

Join hands only with the virtuous.
Keep your mind from evil thoughts.
Lie not for any consideration.
Make few acquaintances.

Never try to appear what you are not

Observe good manners.
Pay your debts promptly.

Question not the veracity of a friend.
Respect the counsel of your parents.
Sacrifice money rather than principle.

Touch not, taste not, handle not, intoxicating drinks.

Use your leisure time for improvement.

Venture not upon the threshold of wrong.

Watch carefully over your passions.
'Xtend to every one a kind salutation.

Yield not to discouragements.
Zealously labour for the right
& success is certain.

NINETY AND NINE.

"There are ninety and nine, that live and die

In want and hunger and cold.

That one may revel in luxury
And be lapped in its silken fold;
The ninety and nine in their hovels bare,

The one in a palace, with riches rare."—Ex.

There are ninety and nine that sponge and buy

And never pays what they owe;

And yet they revel in luxury

And make a pompous show.

There are ninety and nine talk pious twaddle

Gain all they can and then shake-daddle.—O. P. Dildock.
