

case of strawberries sent by Mrs. John Leys.

On the 10th August they were bountifully entertained at the Island by Mrs. Robert McMaster.

Thanks are due to the captains of the park steamers for free trips to Victoria Park, Lorne Park, Hanlan's Point, and the Exhibition grounds; also free admission to the Zoo.

The Managers beg gratefully to thank Drs. Rosebrugh and Reeve and to specially acknowledge the services of Dr. W. C. Adams, whose professional attention to the boys during the year has been unremitting.

The Managers also wish to make mention of the bountiful treat provided for the boys on Christmas evening by Mr. and Mrs. Horatio Nelsbn, and to specially thank them and the kind friends who assisted them, for their personal supervision, which rendered the entertainment such a success.

Many thanks are due for 50 prayer-books received from Mrs. Cosby 37 Wood Street (per Canon Dumoulin.)

We would thank Messrs. Taylor Bros. for supplying the paper on which our reports are printed.
