Lodging	$1.00
Three meals.....	1.50
Admission to grounds	50
Incidentals.....	50

Total for one day and night $3.50

These figures are neither high nor low. They are moderate and reliable. By little effort eating-places can be found that will bring the item of meals considerably nearer one dollar. Under incidentals we include such expenditures as street-car fare; one or more midway admissions at ten or twenty-five cents each; light refreshments at five cents and upward, etc.
