TWO HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS

This year The Mutual Life Assurance Company of Canada celebrates its Golden Jubilee by reaching the two hundred million dollar mark. This point in the expansion of the Mutual Life has been reached more quickly than any of its most ardent friends would have believed possible five years ago. But the reason is not "far to seek." During the great war and the fatal epidemic which followed in its train the Mutual Life paid out in relief of the families bereaved no less than two million three hundred thousand dollars in addition to ordinary claims. The benefits of life insurance were thus so clearly demonstrated that an immense demand resulted and the business of the Mutual has developed as much during the last five years as during the preceding forty-five years. The Canadian people suddenly realized the absolute necessity for life insurance and naturally turned to a company well-known, well-established and financially impregnable.
