Oh, My! Oh, My!

Who says the pathway of the average school teacher is strewn with roses? One of the grade teachers in roses? One of the grade teachers in a school not over a thousand miles from Venice received the following letter the other day:

letter the other day:

"Dear mum.—Please ixcuse Johnny today. He will not be at school. He is acting as timekeeper for his father. Last night you gave him this iximple: 'If a field is four miles square, how long will it take a man walking three miles an hour to walk two and a half times around it?' Johnny ain't no man, so we had to send his daddy. They lafe garly this morning, and my. They left early this morning, and my husband said they ought to be back late tonight, though it would be hard late tonight, though it would be hard going. Dear mum, please make the nixt problem about ladies, as my husband can't afford to lose the day's work. I don't have no time to loaf, but I can spare a day off occasionally better than my husband can. Resp'y yrs, Mrs. — "--Venice Resp'y yrs, Mrs. Vanguard . . .
