Open Meeting of Branch 43.

We learn from the Brockville Recorder of April 27 that an open meeting was held in the rooms of Branch 43 on the previous evening, it being the tenth anniversary of the inauguration of the branch.

The meeting was held for the purpose of explaining to those whe attended, the rules and regulations of the association. The proceedings opened at 2 o'clock, with Grand President O. K. Fraser, in the chair, who made a few appropriate remarks, and then called upon Mr. D. W. Downey, who very ably set forth the advantages of membership in the order.

ably set forth the advantages of membership in the order.

Mr. J. T. Noonan, Secretary of Branch 43, followed, and also spoke in the same line.

He was followed by Ald. J. J. Behan, Kingston, Grand Deputy of Eastern Ontario.

Mr. Behan made a very eloquent and forcible address, and it is safe to say that those who had the privilege of listening to the lucid manner in which he explained the constitution, derived a great deal of benefit. Mr. Behan proved conclusively that the C. M. B. A. was one of the very best assurance associations in Canada. He also paid a very graceful tribute to the Brockville branch, on account of the great prosperity achieved in so short a time, as it was just ten years ago since he came to Brockville to organize Branch 43.

account of the great prosperity achieved in so short a time, as it was just ten years ago since he came to Brockville to organize Branch 43.

Mr. W. J. Bruder, Secretary Branch 16, Prescott, was the next speaker. He very concisely laid before those present his personal knowledge of the great benefits of the C. M. B. A., and enjoined all those present who were eligible to become members. Dr. Ryan, Kingston, Grand Medical Supervisor, laid before the audience the qualifications required by those who wished to become members, and also the cheap insurance to be obtained in the C. M. B. A., while compared with similar organizations. The proceedings closed by an address from the Grand President, who went into detail in regard to the history and work of the association, and very ably explained it. He also very eloquently referred to the memory of those who had gone to their eternal reward.

referred to the memory of those who had been members of that branch, and who had gone to their eternal reward.

It was demonstrated by the various speakers that the C. M. B. A. had been in existence over twenty years, and during that time made wonderful progress. The Grand Council was inaugurated in Canada about sixteen years ago, and to-day the association numbered twelve thousand and had paid out over $1,000,000 in policies. The association also had a reserve fund of $55,000. In connection with the association there is also a sick benefit that is paid weekly to these who belong to it.

The following visiting members were present: Ald. J. J. Behan, Dr. Ryan, Kingston; Messrs. Bruder, Conlon, Allen, Murdock, Martin, Granton, McDonald, McCoy, Prescott, and Mr. Jewel, Pembroke. Several applications for membership have since been made.

DIOCESE OF PETERBOROUGH.

On Sunday, April 26, His Lordship Bishop O'Connor, of Peterborough, invested the worthy pastor of St. Mary's church, Lindsay, with the insigma of Domestic Prelate. This high office was conferred upon Vicar-General Laurent some three or four weeks ago by His Holiness the Pope, in recognition of his forty years of faithful and zealous service in the priesthood. The ceremony was of a most impressive character, the vestments worn on the occasion being brought from Paris by Dr. O'Connor. On this occasion His Lordship was the celebrant of the Mass being assisted by Monsignor Laurent and Rev. Father Maguire. The sermon was delivered by Ven. Archdeacon Casey, who said that the honor conferred upon Rev. Father Laurent was also meant as an especial mark of favor to St. Mary's congregation. At the conclusion of the High Mass Dr. Lynch read the following address, while Mr. John Kennedy handed Monsignor Laurent a well-filled purse, the gift of the congregation.

To the Right Reverend P. D. Laurent, Pasto of St. Mary's church, Lindsay, and Vicar General of the diocese of Peterborough:

Beloved Monsignor—We appear before you to-day on behalf of the people of St. Mary's parish, to congratulate you on the distinction recently conferred upon you by our Holy Father the Pope, who has been graciously pleased to make you one of the prelates of his household.

pleased to make you one of the prelates of his household.

It is a matter of rejoicing to your parishion ers that His Holiness has done you so much honor, for we feel that the relations which have existed between us for the past twelve years enable us to say that the honor has been well deserved, in as much as your life in Lindsay has been marked in a singular degree by wise administration of parish affairs, and untiring devotion to the spiritual welfare of your people. You bad been a resident of Lindsay but a few months when the Catholic community suffered a great loss in the burning of the convent, but thanks to your energy and business capacity, a new building soon arose from the ruins, and the schools resumed their usual work under proper conditions.

The parish debt soon engaged your attention. When you became our pastor in February, 18st, the parish debt amounted to its 600, an obligation of sufficient magnitude to discourage a pastor who was a stranger amongst us. This great indebtedness, however, rapidly and steadily decreased, until in October, 1890, and a steadily decreased, until in October, 1890, and of debt. Current expenses had also been met during these years, and your people had the satisfaction of knowing that no undue pressure was felt by them in the discharge of the debt. Under your prudent management large improvements have since been made in the church property. A handsome spire has been added to the church, the church structure has been enlarged and beautified, a chime of bells has been placed in the spire, and a property has been purchased for a new cemetery.

The moral and religious interests of the people, too, have received your paternal attention. The schools, under your advice and supervision, have attained a high degree of excellence, a thoroughly tatholic tone has been encouraged in the social character of our people, and the spiritual side of parish life has been zealously and faithfully developed.

In conclusion, beloved Monsignor, we beg to tender you this testimonial of our esteem. Such an offering feebly tells how deep and real is our love and regard. But it will help to defray some of the outlay incident to your dignity. Though your labors have been many in the parish, they have not been accompanied by a corresponding increase in your private means, but you have been guided by other motives and look for another reward. Your people trust that your days may be many among them, and that you will continue to feel that their best wishes and prayers will always attend you. Signed on behalf of the people of the parish.

Monsignor Laurent replied to the address as follows:

Monsignor Laurent replied to the address as follows:
"Gentlemen of the Committee and My Dear People—To day it becomes our common and most pleasing duty to express our gratitude towards the great and hely Pontifi mow happily ruling the Church of God and whom it is our privilege to call by the endearing name of l'ather. The far-reaching nature of his supreme paternity is well exemplified by the fact of his noticing with favor this far distant parish of St. Mary's, Lindsay. We pray that God may long spare His Holines for the good of the Church and the world at large.

To the good of the Church and the world at large.

"We also tender cur thanks to that noble prince of the Church, His Eminence Cardinal Ledochowski, Prefect of the Propaganda, to whom the Holy Father has entrusted the immediate supervision and care of all missionary countries throughout the world, at brave upholder of the liberty of conscience, a fearless confessor of the laith, who, some years ago, in much-tried Poland, did not shrick from the dungeon in the discharge of his episcopal office and the defence of his passes of the state of the superce in the honor you refer to has been granted to this diocese of Peterborough and this parish of St. Mary's, Lindsay.

"But we have among us to day one who takes the place of the Cardinal Perfect and the Holy Father himself—one with whom the Vicar of Christ shares the burthen of ruling in faith and charity a portion of the universal flock which the Supreme Shepherd has called unto Himself—one whom it is our duty and happiness to obey and revers as our Bishop, because Christ, through His Vicar, has set him up to govern that portion of the Church included in the diocese of Peterborough. To him our hearts go out in unfeigned admiration and respectful love for his unassuming love, for his untriing zeal, for his truly paternal love towards his priests and people, and, not least, for his great kindness to this parish, when, at the feet of the Supreme Pontiff, he remembered it in a special manner and solicited the favor which has come to us to day. He has shown his condescension still further by coming among us in person to share our joy and to conterwith his own hands the distinction so graciously obtained.

"As for you, my dear people, what can your poor pastor say to you? For twelve years we have labored together in the work of the parish. Time has seemed short, because busy people who love their work notice but little the flight of years. Stormy days have been few, for no dark clouds could with stand the sunshine of your generosity and your penerosity and your penerosity

REV. FATHER M'PHILLIPS PRESENTE WITH A PURSE AND AN ADDLESS.

Orangeville Sun.

Orangeville Sun.

A gathering of a number of the members of St. Peter's church took palce at the residence of Mr. P. J. Bench, Second avenue, last evening for the purpose of showing their esteem for Rev. Father McPhillips; also to express their sorrow at his removal from the parish and to tender him their thanks for the benefits which they had received through his ministry for the past five years, and to wish him "God Speed."

The matter had been arranged so quietly that the rev. gentleman had not the slightest idea of it until he entered the house. Mrs. Bench very kindly supplied a dainty farewell supper, covers being laid for forty. Speeches, tender in tone and highly appreciative in sentiment, were made by the chairman and members of the congregation. The main purpose of the assemblage was then announced by the chairman, and, having done so, an address was read and Father McPhillips was presented with a well filled purse. The rev. gentleman replied, heartily thanking them for the token of friendship and assured them of his appreciation of the gift, as friends, with whom he had associated for many years, had joined hand in hand to convey to him a lasting remembrance of the days they had spent together. The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent.

together. The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent.

To Rev. H. J. McPhillips, P. P., Orangeville. Rev and dear Father—We the parishioners of 8t. Peter's church, having heard with regret that you are about to depart from our midst, take this occasion to express to you our high appreciation of the services which you have rendered us while our pastor during the past five years. In the discharge of your duties you have been ever faithful and zealous, nover sparing yourself, but always ready and willing under any circumstances to minister to the wants of your people and particularly to those afflicted, having on many occasions endangered your own health, and, we might say life, attending those of us who were sick or our dear dying ones.

Not only have you been zealous in attending to our spiritual affairs, but you have proven yourself to be equally so about our temporal matters, as may be seen by the good financial standing of our parish. Coming, as you fit to us when we were burdened by debt, you fit to short space of two years were instrumental in having it completely wiped out, so that to day not one cent of indebtedness hangs over us.

While grieving at the removal of so zealous a pastor, we nevertheless, rejoice, since you must leave us, that your future field of liabor is a much larger one where you can exercise, if possible, in a greater degree the great talents with which God has endowed you. Wishing you every measure of success in your new parish let us assure you that you bear with you the highest esteem and respect not only of us. your parishioners, but also that of the citizens of this town generally.

As a small token, therefore, dear Father, of our esteem for you we ask you to accept this purse and ever pray you will renember us and our families in your prayers to Almighty God, the Father and Giver of all.

Signed on behalf of the congregation, Joseph Hill, Owen Garrity, John Foley, P. J. Bench, M. J. Bench.

The new parochial residence at St. Lawrence was opened on Sunday last. His Lordship Bishop Dowling and all the city clergy accepted Father Brady's invitation to dine with him in honor of the occasion. Too much praise cannot be given to the people of St. Lawrence parish, and especially to the ladies, for the wonderful zeal they have shown in furnishing the presbytery in about two weeks. Many of the gifts towards fitting up the house were costly and elegant and Father Brady has now a home furnished equally as well and in some respects better than any other parish residence in the diocess.

than any other parish residence in the diocese.

The Bishop celebrated Mass for the Loretto Sisters in the chapel of their academy on Sunday. In the atternoon he visited St.
Joseph's church, and addressed the members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society. In the evening he attended Vespers at St. Lawrence

Year after year the month of Mary is welcomed with the same feelings of cordial joy, by all who love the Mother of the Lord and who range themselves under her maternal care. It is the month of their queen. It is the season when they can give full expression to their admiration for her virtues, their wonder at the dignity to which God called her, and their confidence in her affection for them as the brethren of Christ and the beings for whose salvation He came down from His throne to

The incense of praise tha is wafted up to her from her myriad shrines, is very grateful to her. It is the visible proof and fulfillment of her prophecy when she exclaimed to St. Elizabeth: "From henceforth all gener ations shall call me blessed."

But she is not made vain by the nomage of her clients. O no! She passes it up to her dear Divine Son, for it was, she knows well, for His sake and by His grace and through His merits that she was made beautiful and bountiful.

And she rewards those who pay their devotions to her by obtaining from Jesus for them the favors that they need. The veneration of that mirror of womanly perfection, the Immaculate Virgin, serves to make holy purity be more and more honored among Catho-lics. It idealizes womankind. It sets up a model of virtue. It makes chastity be appreciated and virginity be revered. Let the members of the Sodal ity of the Children of Mary, therefore, gather before her statue to sing paeans in her honor, to hear of her sanctity, to invoke her protection. She is their mother. # Sexton's Eloquent Farewell.

Full of elequence and pathos is the letter in which Thomas Sexton, the well known Irish leader who is about to retire, takes farewell of North Kerry, his old constituency. He bears frank testimony to his appreciation of the loyal support accorded to him, by his constituents during a time of bitter trial, that "period of dissension which bred confusion of opinion where clear harmony had prevailed." He refers to the work which he has done in regard to Home Rule, "the question of national right;" on the Morley land committee of 1894, and on the financial relations commission.

Mr. Sexton recognizes that his work on these subjects was the most import ant in relation to the future of Ireland that he has been called on to do. In conclusion, he declares that the new member for North Kerry will always enjoy any assistance which it is in his power to reader, and he points once again the moral, "Discipline is the condition of success," for Irishmen as for others.

A DOUBLE RESCUE

Iwo Young Ladies Brought Back to Health and Strength - One was Threatened with Consumption Following an Attack of Pneumonia-the Other was in an Advanced Stage of Anaemia-Dr. Williams' Pink Pill Restore Health after other Medicines Fail.

From the Truro, N. S. News. Among the residents of Truro there are none better known or more highly esteemed than Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Turner. Mr. Turner is an elder in the Presbyterian church, and a man whose word is as good as his bond. In his family reside two young ladies, Miss Maud Christie, an adopted daughter, and Miss Jessie Hall, a sister of Mrs. Turner. Both young ladies are known to have had trying illnesses, and were said to have been restored to health by a popular medicine, the name of which is a household word from the which is a nousenoid word from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Judging that their story would be of popular interest, a reporter called upon them and asked for such information as they might choose to make public. Both young ladies were averse to publicity, but when it was pointed out that their Died, on Wednesday, April 22, 1896, at Royal Victoria Hospital, John Alexander, son of John Grant, 426 Richmond street Montreal (formerly of Glengarry, Ont.), age perhaps the most remarkable, is given precedence. She said: "I am now nineteen years of age and have never been very strong. On the 26th of July last I was attacked with pneumonia, brought on by a severe cold. I was confined to bed for almost eight weeks, when I was able to get up once more. During these weeks I was under treatment by our physician, and still continued taking his medicine. I did not appear to recover my strength however, and on the 14th of Nov. was again forced to take my bed, this time suffering from great weakness and nervous prostration. The doctors medicine now seemed to do me no good, and I grew gradually worse. I became so low that it seemed hardly possible that I could live long. The doctor said that was in consumption, and that medicine was of no more use to me. At this time an article was published in the paper concerning the cure of a young lady in Toronto by the use of Dr. Williams Pink Pills, and Mr. Turner at once bought some. After I had used about six boxes I began to get gradually better, my strength began to re turn, my appetite improved, and I had sound, refreshing sleep at night. have now used fifteen Pills, and have no hesitation in saying cure in my case. In the case of Miss Hall the Pink Pills have also accomplished marvels. She was attacked with dizziness, severe headaches and fainting spells, followed later by swelling of the feet and limbs together with other symptoms of an aemia. Atter having been treated by a physician for some time without any noticeable improvement she decided to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. After using a few boxes of the pills there was a decided improvement in her condition, and with the continued use of the medicine full strength, health and activity returned, and Miss Hall is now feeling as well as ever she did in her life. Both Mr. and Mrs. Turner were present during the interview, and strongly endorsed what the young ladies said, and expressed their thanks for what Pink Pills had done for them that they have effected a wonderfu

The experience of years has proved that there is absolutely no disease due to a vitiated condition of the blood or shattered nerves, that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will not promptly cure, and those who are suffering from such troubles will avoid much misery and save money by promptly resorting to this treatment. Get the genuine Pink Pills every time, and do not be persuaded to take an imitation or other remedy from a, dealer, which for the sake of the extra profit to himself 'just as good." A Minister's Experience. It is about six years since I felt that some thing was out of order, although I didn't show a except that I looked pale and thin; a numbness affected me so that I couldn't speed properly, my eyesight was also impaired a parely sparks apparently moving in the eyes so that couldn't read, but after I took Pastor Koenig Kerve Tonic all these symptoms disappeared, feel fresh and well again. May God bless Rec Koenig.

My wife had headache sixteen years, and Falling sickness seven years and could not sleep. Pastor Koneng's Nerve Tonic helped at one; my wife has had no more headache since; and I am cured entirely. Thanks to the Almighty God for the Tonic.
