PREPARATORY COMMITTIES. An interesting letter from our attentive English Correspondent, in this day's issue, will acquaint our readers with the most important transactions in the first few days of the British Conference. It will be seen that the Reverend JOHN BOWERS has been elected President .standing, an elder even among the seniors of the among the Preachers of the Body, and who retained this position as long as his health remained firm and his itigerant labours continued-a man of high and unspotted Chriistian character, of refined and unvarying ministerial propriety, and of great gentlemanly courtesy.

Our correspondent alludes to the satisfactory character of the Preparatory Committees. The Reports of these as furnished to the Watchman are this year more than usually voluminous.
