MODEL STORES.

While walking up Yonge St., our new principle commercial highway, and passing the many dry goods stores, that are so well decorated outside with merchandise, hung from the second floor to the sidewalks, one cannot help noticing conspicuous among them a double store front, that is always clean and neat, and also the attractive displays of goods in their windows, which are well laid out and designed and you cannot go far wrong by an examination of the contents to determine the landmarks of advanced fashion. The store, now so well-known, is Armson & Stone's, No. 212, and they are well pleased with the past season's trade, and have made considerable improvements in the store in preparation for a large Spring trade. Mr. Armson has just returned from England having made large and choice selections of goods, and from the piles of dress fabrics and trimmings, which are sold largely in connection with their dress making department, the very elegant millinery and stylish jackets, which are extraordinary low in price, we are shown one at $2.75 which seems a wonderfully low price, a pretty walking jacket. With all these novelties they expect to have a grand opening on the 22nd, and expect to have a rush of customers in according with these many attractions.

IMPORTANT TO ALL who are willing to work for the reward of success. Hallett & Co., Portland, Maine, will mail you, free, full particulars about work that either sex, young or old, can do, at a profit of from $5 to $25 per day, and upwards, and live at home, wherever they are located. All can do the work. Capital not required; Hallett & Co. will start you. Grand success absolutely sure. Write at once and see.

WHAT IS IT?

A PESTILENCE THAT WALKS IN DARKNESS
—A DESTRUCTION THAT WASTES AT NOON-DAY.

We have published in our columns from time to time different advertisements in regard to Bright's Disease and its cures.

What is this terrible disease?

We have taken the trouble to make an investigation from the best sources, and we give the results to our readers.

What astonishes us is the general indifference given to kidney disorders. The kidneys do not sound the alarm of their diseased condition, owing to the fact that they have very few nerves, hence few suspect that there is any disease in them. Irritation, inflammation, ulceration sets in, and then the little tubes, of which the kidneys are full, are destroyed and thrown off, and from this fact are called tube casts.

As soon as this begins to take place it is only a question of how fast decomposition goes on before the disease results fatally. If the proper remedies are taken before final decomposition or waste of these tubes commences or becomes too far advanced, that is the only and last chance for relief. It is at this point or before that Warner's safe cure proves so beneficial, and may cure or stop the wasting away of the kidneys if it has not advanced too far.

The most remarkable thing of all our investigation is the fact that the patient with Bright's disease has no exclusive symptoms, but has the symptoms of every common disease.

First he may possibly feel a dull pain in his back, generally up on one side, which does not debar him from his usual business routine. After a time he may begin to feel neuralgic pains, or have a slight attack of what he may call rheumatism, or headache, with high or dark colored urine, with an unpleasant sensation in its passage, and after standing showing an unnatural condition. Later on, come tired feelings, loss of ambition or vigor, or loss of or failing eyesight, which is very common, with a distressed condition of the stomach. Any one of these symptoms is liable to occur.

This no doubt accounts for the proprietors of Warner's safe cure curing so many diseases. By regulating and building up the kidneys, symptoms of general ill-health disappear. They justly accuse the medical profession of treating the effects and not the cause. Finally if this disorder is neglected the patient either dies of apoplexy, pneumonia, heart disease, blood poison, consumption, or any other disease that the system is most subject to.

It appears that Gen. Logan realized his condition, "was well aware that his disease was of the kidneys, and expressed himself in indignant terms at the folly of the doctors in treating him for rheumatism when it was the kidneys that caused his attacks."

We have no doubt that very many people in this country have the same trouble as the General, but little importance is attached to this malady by the medical profession because of their inability to cope with it, either in its first appearance or advanced condition.

There appears to be some one cause for nearly every other ailment of the human system, but up to the present time no one has been able to fully account for this terrible malady. We understand that the people of Germany have become aware of its fearful fatality, and have offered 400,000 marks ($100,000) to any one that can satisfactorily explain the cause.

—Girls read too much and think too little. I will answer for it that there are few girls of eighteen who have not read more books than I have, and as to religious books, I could count upon my fingers in two minutes all I ever read, but they are mine. I never knew but one or two fast readers of many books, whose knowledge was worth anything. Miss Martineau says of herself, that she is the slowest of readers, sometimes a page in an hour, but then what she reads she makes her own. Comte, one of the most profound thinkers in Europe, said that he had read an incredibly small number of books, and scarcely ever a review; but what Comte reads lies there fructifying, and comes out a living tree, with leaves and fruit.—That multifarious reading weakens the mind more than doing nothing, for it becomes a necessity at last, like smoking, and is an excuse for the mind to lie dormant, whilst thought is poured in and runs through, a clear stream, over unproductive gravel on which not even mosses grow. It is the idlest of all idleness, and leaves more impotency than any other. Read hard or not at all—never skimming—never turning aside to merely inviting books, and the deep thoughts of great minds will pass like the iron atoms of the blood into your mental constitution.—Extract from a Letter of Frederick Robertson on Reading.
