The Story of St. Paul.
By CANON FARRAR, D.D., F.R.S., Archdeacon of Westminster.
The World's Greatest Living Religious Teacher and most fascinating writer. Illustrated with a number of correct maps, and a vast gallery of superb wood engravings by the most eminent artists.

THE author, who is acknowledged to be one of the most fascinating writers of the present day, spent years of study and travel in the preparation of this magnificent volume. In it each incident becomes a picturesque story of the most absorbing interest, and it will be read with greater interest than any romance ever written. Highly recommended by the press everywhere, by ministers of all denominations, by college presidents, by professors, by Sunday school superintendents, by teachers and men of influence; indeed all who have examined it carefully, declare it to be the best book of the kind ever written. Praises so hearty and universal, show that it is entirely free from sectarian bias, is honestly and lovingly wrought, and is admirably adapted for the use of all classes and all denominations.

"In Spring a young man's fancy
Lightly turns to thoughts of love."
And as usual the result is a proposal of marriage.
Now, by wearing a stylish shoe a lady makes that difficulty much easier for the bashful swain, as when in that position the young man generally takes great interest either in his own or the lady's footwear.
