METHOD OF PLACING LOAN CRITICIZED

Special to The Ontario. Toronto, May 20. Hon. Mr. McGarry, Provincial Treasurer, seems to be patting himself on the back a good deal these days in regard to his recent financial operations carried on for the Government. For example, in the Toronto News, Conservative, the fact is emphasized that Mr. McGarry managed to close a loan for $4,000,000, and to quote the News, "at four and a half later word of the sinking of the Lusitania was received and the money market was upset." It does certainly look as if Mr. McGarry had some authentic premonition of the disaster and was, therefore, anxious to have the transaction closed exactly by Friday afternoon.

There does not seem, however, to be any unanimity as to the great credit which should come to Hon. Mr. McGarry for his general financing since he became Provincial Treasurer. For example, the public are hardly likely to join with him in his jubilation at being able to close a loan of $4,000,000 at all, for this simply means that he has increased the debt of the Province to this extent and that the Government to this amount, merely as a sample, has failed to keep expenditures within the limit of the receipts. This $4,000,000 has nothing to do with the war loan negotiated on the basis of the war tax which netted the Provincial Treasurer $2,000,000 and was placed in New York about two weeks ago.

The method of placing the $4,000,000 loan is also meeting with much criticism especially because the Provincial Treasurer did not ask for general tenders. The Monetary Times for example, says: "There seems to be little doubt that a higher price than the good one actually received could have been obtained. There is, we believe, indisputable evidence in black and white to that effect." The Toronto Telegram, Conservative, is also in a very critical mood. "It is an indisputable fact," it says, "that a better price could have been obtained for the last $4,000,000 issue, had tenders been obtained from all brokers who wished to participate." It also says that this situation does not compare very favorably with other issues recently floated.

Another source of complaint against the Provincial Treasurer is that on a recent loan, before either of the two present flotations, the Government acted through Home Smith & Co., who are not in the bond business at all, and paid them a commission of $25,000. This transaction has never been satisfactorily explained although the Opposition has pressed for further information.

Although it looks as if the Provincial Treasurer was praising himself because nearly everybody else, irrespective of politics, is in a very critical mood towards his financing.

LIBERALS WHO ARE SERVING AT THE FRONT

Special to The Ontario. TORONTO, May 21st, 1915—A substantial record of active service in the war by officers and members of Liberal Clubs in the Province was shown at the annual meeting of the Liberal Club Federation of Ontario being held here this afternoon. The London Liberal Club, for example, reports thirty of its members enlisted and at the front including its President, Secretary and seven other members of its executive. The Hastings Liberal Club, Belleville, has thirty of its members on active service and the Liberal Club in the small village of Kenilworth has two men at the front and six others enlisted. The Brantford Liberal Club has a quota of fifteen with one of its members the commanding officer of the Third Contingent from that city. A member of the Harrison Liberal Club has already been killed on active service. The President and Secretary of the Midland Liberal Club are at the front, the Woodstock Liberal Club has five representatives, Barrie six, and so on all through the Federation.

The three Clubs in Toronto City, the Canada Forward, The Rowell Liberal and the University Liberal, have all done their share. As far as the University Liberal Club is concerned, nearly all its members are either on active service or are members of the University Officers' Training Corps.

Reception to the New Commissioner

First Visit of New S. A. Plenipotentiary to Local Corps. (From Friday's Daily.) Commissioner Richards, the new leader of the Salvation Army in Canada, was given a rousing demonstration last evening by the Belleville corps in Bridge St. Methodist Church. This was his first visit to this city. The commissioner was accompanied by Brigadiers Morris, and Rawling and Lt.-Col. Turner. In this city he was the guest of Mr. F. E. O'Flynn, Bridge St.

Last evening the Commissioner met the local officers in council at the citadel, Pinnacle Street, and had luncheon with them. The distinguished visitors, Capt. Ruston and the local corps and band held an open air meeting at seven-thirty last evening at the corner of Front and Bridge Streets. There was a good sized crowd in Bridge Street Church at eight o'clock Brigadier Rawling conducting the opening service.

Mayor Pantier, chairman, paid high tribute to the noble work of the Salvation Army in the reclamation of souls from sin and its noble influence on them for the rest of their lives. Brigadier Morris sang a solo "Just Lean Upon the Arms." He used the accordion as accompaniment. Commissioner Richards, the new plenipotentiary of the S. A. in Canada, in his opening remarks praised the Army's marvellous work. The office has letters from the British army and navy officials thanking the S. A. for its endeavor among the soldiers and sailors. The organization has 10,000 soldiers at the front and two units of motor ambulances. Lord Kitchener has called for 32 more S.A. leaders for the Samaritan work at the front.

The people of Canada are a large-hearted people Canadians cannot help having an expanded view. They suit me down to the ground and I suit them to a "T." Canada is a great command, including Alaska and Bermuda. "I am a salvationist from centre to circumference. The S. A. takes in everybody and its shoulders are up with the shoulders of those who are trying to alleviate the distress of humanity. God found me a wife in the Salvation Army. Six of our children are in the S. A. as officers, and one is in heaven."

Seventeen years ago, General Wm. Booth appointed Commissioner Richards to Denmark and Scandinavia. There he remained for six years and a half. The same length of time was spent in South Africa. Then followed three years he was appointed to New Zealand and now succeeds the late Commissioner Rees in Canada. He has been in every rank and has filled every office up to Commissioner.

What was he going to do? He would not try to destroy any edifice erected by his predecessors. They did not work alone. In all his travels from north to south and east to west, he saw none who could surpass the Canadian officers. The doctrine—"I stand by the Old Book from Genesis to Revelation. I'll have no tearing of it, no expurgation but will keep it as it came from God. It is the whole word of God. All the wonders of this modern age, what are they all for? Will the world be any better for these discoveries? All depends upon whether there is a strong belief in God. Civilizations of a high order have disappeared, because they had not the true religion. I have a firm belief the allies are going to win not because of armaments but because they build on God. I like this world very well. I'm willing to be here for 100 years, then take three months' rest among the angels and then return to earth to work among human beings. I want a religion that is for poor souls down and out. I see a brother and sister in every human being. The poor lost soul is a lost coin. Each bears a stamp. The tarnish will vanish in the blood of Christ."

There is a philosophy in the handshake, that is for poor souls down and out. The one wanted is the grip of sympathy and divine magic. Courageous religion is desired. Then man will rise above the foothill fog like the eagle, into the azure, above real estate, and doubts into the approval of the great heart of Jesus Christ. The band gave a musical number. Rev. Mr. Osborne moved a resolution of thanks, seconded by Mr. F. E. O'Flynn, which was heartily carried. A vote of thanks was also passed to the pastor and seconder and the church and to the chairman.

During the last week upwards of 45,000,000 whitefish fry have been deposited in the Bay of Quinte. The fry came from Belleville hatchery and Mr. James Hurst, Fish Inspector of Belleville, had charge of the depositing of the fry.

On Wednesday, May 19th at the home of Mr. E. W. Fenn, Foster Ave by Rev. W. G. Clarke in the presence of near relatives, Richard Carruthers Belleville and Jean Carruthers, Carlisle, England, were united in marriage. 15th Officers Entertained 39th

(From Friday's Daily) A complimentary and also farewell smoker was held at the armouries last night under the auspices of the officers of the Fifteenth Regiment in honor of the officers of the 39th battalion so soon to leave Belleville. The function took place in the officers' mess. Lieut. Col. T. W. Marsh, presided. There was a short program of addresses. Social intercourse and enjoyment whittled away the hours until early morn was reached. The speeches were short and complimentary in tone. Col. Marsh proposed the toast of "The King," which was royally honored and Rev. Canon Major Beamish toasted the "39th." Col. Preston replied. Col. Ponton made a short address. The musical part of the program was furnished by Capt. Doyle, Lieut. Irwin, Lieut. Wrightmyer, and Mr. Earle.

The April issue of Cronberg's Gazette, the leading tailors' trade magazine, contains a page write-up and story of Farr L. Scott, president of the Industrial Custom Cutters' Association of America. In addition to his prominence in tailoring circles, Mr. Scott is one of the best chucker players in Ohio, being active in checker clubs in Toledo, Ohio. "Mr. Scott is a man of fine personality, good character and fine ideals. He is well spoken of and one of the most respected citizens of Toledo, Ohio," says an extract from the Gazette.

CANADIANS AT THE FRONT

The bosom of every Canadian born man and woman in Chicago swelled with feelings of satisfaction when they read the scare headlines in our daily papers here, telling of the heroic action of the Canadian troops at the front in France. Our minds travelled back to a similar occasion some years ago, during the Boer war in South Africa, when the papers here heralded similar tidings to us. There is something in that Canadian valor, in the face of danger. A news item tells of an interview with a Canadian soldier after the battle. The soldier was asked by the interviewer what effect the acid bombs the Germans are using had on the Canadian troops in that battle. "The bombs made us mad," he said, "and more determined to get to them as quickly as we could! We wonder if Kaiser Bill the Bold has read that interview and if so what he thinks of the action of the troops from a colony which, eight months ago, was reported in Germany to be in revolt against the British Crown. These are perilous days for Kaiser Bill, and he fears the accession by the Allies of those additional Canadian contingents in course of formation. That's why his emissaries are burning down the plants of the Graham Company and why they are doing everything within their power to prevent the Canadian contingents from becoming units in the British army. But the Canadians will continue to form contingents as long as the motherland and human welfare need them, and Canadians, both of the present and of the future, will be found, as has their first contingent in France, well up in the battle front, doing valiant service in the cause of justice and civilization, and bearing their fair share of the burdens of the human race as becomes a cultured, enlightened and highly civilized nation.—Chicago-Belleville News.

BARRIEFIELD CAMP OPENS NEXT WEEK

3000 Men Under Canvas—Col. T. D. R. Hemming Will be Camp Commandant—Training Will be Carried on at Barrifield For Five Months—Active Service Conditions. Barriefield military camp will open on Tuesday next, May 25th, with about 3,000 men under canvas, and for a period of training covering nearly five months. The advance party will go into camp tomorrow, with the entire administrative staff under Colonel Hemming.

At last all the details in connection with the camp have found their way to publicity, and Barriefield commons will be occupied by a large force of troops under training for overseas. No volunteer units will go into camp this year, and all training will be under active service conditions.

The units that will go into camp there for the summer, are: the Pay Corps, No. 2 Company C.P.A.S.C., No. 5 Company Queen's Engineers, and the local staff of the C.O.C. under Major Pridoux, 8th Mounted Rifles, Ottawa; 7th Artillery Brigade composed of the 25th and 26th Batteries, and Ammunition Column, Ottawa; 38th Battalion Ottawa, and about 100 surplus men that will be formed into a new battalion.

The surplus men have been enlisted for overseas service from the 14th, 15th, 16th, 40th, 42nd, 43rd, 45th, 46th, 47th, 49th, 56th, 57th, 59th, regiments, including the G.C.F.G., and these will be organized into a new overseas battalion, with sufficient men recruited during camp to complete the strength of the new unit. It is said that a Kingston officer is likely to get the command of the new battalion, and that several Kingston officers will find a place in its composition.

The recruits from the 41st and 56th Regiments will act as advance party, which will enter camp on Saturday. The 45th recruits will not enter camp until later. The following units will also detail advance parties which will go into camp on Saturday: 8th C.M.R., 35 men under an officer; 38th Battalion, 50 men under an officer; the 26th Battery, Kingston, will act as advance party for the 7th Artillery Brigade, and will enter camp on the 22nd. All advance parties will bring their own cooks.

The 39th Battalion, Belleville, will remain in their present location until further orders. All transportation arrangements are being made by Major Hamilton, A.D.T.S. Owing to the fact that so many men have been sent overseas from Queen's breaking up the C.O.T.C. of the University, this unit will not be in camp as originally intended. Each unit entering camp will have its own canteen, and will be in charge of a competent non-commissioned officer. All profits from the canteens will be turned over to regimental funds. A number of canteens will be opened on private property, and as long as these comply with the wishes of the camp commandant, and with regulations, they will not be interfered with. Any improper conduct of these canteens will cause them to be put out of bounds, which will mean that no soldier will dare patronize them. No canteen in camp will be allowed to sell any beer, liquor or intoxicating beverage.

For the moral and spiritual benefit of the soldiers in camp, the Militia Y.M.C.A. have a large tent, and this will be in charge of Mr. Lilly, who worked so hard among the soldiers in Ontario Hall during the past winter. The men will be compelled to do much shooting and the working out of tactical schemes. The 8th C.M.R. will not confine their drills and manoeuvres to the camp ground, but will range the country within a radius of 10 or 12 miles, where excellent ground can be found for just the kind of work mounted infantry are intended for.

The artillery will also do a great deal of road work, and will afford good instruction for artillery officers who will attend the R.S.A. during the summer months. Lieut. Brandon of the 39th Battalion, Belleville, is in Kingston, and may be attached for duty in Barriefield camp.
