We would call the attention of our readers to the Palace Theatre Advertisement which appears elsewhere in this issue. The play of "David Copperfield," by Charles Dickens, which will be put on next Monday and Tuesday nights, March 1, and 2, in seven reels, is one of the greatest of Dickens' works and most people are already familiar with it. Owing to the number of reels there will only be one show each night on Monday and Tuesday, starting at 8 o'clock. On Friday and Saturday of this week the popular serial "Dollie of the Dalles" will be shown, also the "Hearst-Selig News Fictional," which is always good. This theatre is conveniently located, large, and well ventilated. The pictures can be well seen from any seat, and the music is of the highest order.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS BALL

The Knights of Pythias fourth annual ball and social, a detailed account of which was received too late for our last issue, was held on Monday evening, 10th inst., at the Andrae Hall, and was the most important and successful social event of the season. The ball was specially decorated for the occasion with flags and evergreen, and presented a very attractive appearance.

The Reception Committee, composed of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Finigan, Mr. Albert Shaw and Miss Laura Shaw, received the guests as they entered the ball-room for the Grand March, which took place at 8.30.
