in the English press, has published an article in which it said: "The forces of Larkin are released and the ideas he represents are independent of him. He is only the match that fires the train. By the light of his conflagration we may see the realities behind the falsities of home rule. The political platform echoes with the sectarian issues of Orange lodges drilling in the north and the Ancient Order of Hibernians organizing in the south, and all the rusty weapons of the seventeenth century are being resurrected to keep alive this hateful feud. Then comes this uncouth figure from the ranks with his plague on both your houses and reveals that behind these threadbare controversies of the past there is a latent force in Ireland that will dominate the politics of the Home Rule Parliament and submerge the sectarian issue."

dock and the Rainbow earning scornful remarks on the Pacific coast.
In other words, thanks to the attitude of the Liberal party's cowardice when in power and disloyalty when out of power, Canada could not go into a naval defence conference with even a tin pot navy to show. In the circumstances it is felt that Canada's straight duty must be to catch up with arrears. That can be done by building the three battleships, for which the Admiralty asked and which the Government has undertaken to furnish. When that has been accomplished, the way will be clear for the enunciation of a permanent policy, and for that defence conference would be advantageous.

Indignant Wife

One question called forth the remark from Mrs. Barrett: "It is not I who am making up all this; I am ashamed of you."

In answer to Mrs. Rawlinson, Mrs.
Barrett said that shortly after the marriage she surprised her husband and a girl named Vernon, from one of the theatres, in a flat where they were then living. Afterwards the girl confessed to misconduct with Mr. Barrett.

"At the time," Mrs. Barrette said, "the girl was wearing a brooch which was a wedding present to me, and had been taken from me by my husband and given to the girl."

Mr. Barrett denied having at any time been guilty of impropriety since the Colchester affair in 1903, which was condoned. The Chelsea story was unfounded.

The judge asked if Mr. Barrett was prepared to give his wife anything to live on, and he replied that he was if he found that she was leading a moral life. He was prepared to give her £1 a week, and increase it later if he could.

Sir S. Evans said that the Colchester incident was condoned by the wife, and the Chelsea episode was not sufficiently corroborated for him to act upon it. The result was that, though the intervention of the King's Proctor was in his opinion quite justified, the court would exercise its discretion in favor of the husband on the condition that he agreed to pay to his former wife £4 per month while she remained chaste and unmarried.

"It is evident," he added, "that the parties can never live together again.
The decree nisi will stand, and the King's Proctor's intervention is dismissed."

CARLISLE INDIANS WIN.
SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 24.—The Carlisle Indians defeated Syracuse in the Archbold Stadium Saturday by the score of 35 to 7. The game was one of the most spectacular ever seen in this city. Syracuse was the first to score, but the Indians followed with a touch down, and all through the game the two elevens took turns in scoring.

EAT CABBAGE, FISH, SAUSAGE, NEW BREAD

"Pape's Diapepsin" digests food when stomach can't—Cures indigestion.

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, jot this down: Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure.
"Pape's Diapepsin" is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.
