A FACE

Between the curtains of snowy lace
Over the way is a baby's face
It peeps forth smiling in merry glee,
And waves its pink little hand at me.
My heart responds with a lonely cry,
But in the wonderful By-and-By—
Out from the window of God's "To-Be,"
That other baby shall beckon to me.
That ever-haunting and longed-for face,
That perfect vision of infant grace,
Shall shine on me in a splendor of light,
Never to fade from my eager sight.
All that was taken shall be made good,
All that puzzles me understood,
And the wee white hand that I lost one
day
Shall lead me into the Better Way.

Miss Norah Wallace left on Thursday to visit friends in Toronto.

Dr. Britton, Vancouver, is the guest of his brother Dr. F. Britton, Dufferin avenue.

Miss Adelaide McIntambert leaves on Monday to visit her cousin in New York.

Mrs. A. T. Duncan has returned from a week's visit in Toronto, where she was the guest of Miss Fitzgerald, Avenue Road, and attended the Mendelssohn concert.

THE SLOPPY-STYLISH SUIT OF TO-DAY

At first glance this costume appears to be a gracefully caught up evening wrap, but in reality it is no wrap at all, but the very last word in tailors for the promenade. The suit with its loose, baggy lines and absolute absence of "fit," is entirely in accord with the "sloppy" fashions of the moment. It is built of French-blue velvet and is handsomely trimmed with Sika fox.

DAILY FASHION HINT

Lady's Dress.
This model shows the elegance of the more simple styles. It has a very plain blouse, with the drop shoulder and plain, full length sleeves. The neck is trimmed with a pretty collar and the closing is in front. The skirt may be made in one piece or in two, as preferred. It also closes in front.

Cheviot, serge, velvet, satin, messaline and many of the novelty woollen fabrics are suitable for a dress in this style. The dress pattern, No. 6456, is cut in sizes 34 to 42 inches bust measure. Medium size requires 3 yards of 50 inch material, with 1/2 yard of 27 inch silk for the collar.

This pattern can be obtained by sending 10 cents to the office of this paper.

Eight days must be allowed for receipt of pattern.

PATTERN ORDER

Miss Jakes, a very popular visitor in town, will leave to-morrow to visit friends in Toronto en route to her home in St. Louis.

Miss McLeod, a returned missionary was Mrs. Popplewell's guest this week. Miss Marquis of the First Baptist church, gave a reception for her.

The Musical Club next week will present an interesting programme, "Musical, recitation and miscellaneous," arranged by Mrs. Harry Quillie and Miss Helen Kippax.

The new bustle gowns are to the fore. Not one of you will like them at first; neither did you like the narrow slit skirt, but you wore one after a while.

Women's Art Association of Canada are holding their annual exhibition in the new galleries, 504 Jarvis Street, Toronto, opening on Saturday, February 14th.

This has been an unusually quiet season socially—a contrast to last winter, when the merry-go-round whirled with many dates in the calendar.

Lady Laurier entertained at a weekend tea in honor of her niece, Miss Pauline Laurier, of Montreal. Mrs. Joseph de Lorimer of Montreal poured tea and Miss Counter-coffee.

Mr. Gerald Wilkes and his cousin, Mr. Maurice Wilkes, who were here to attend the obsequies of their grandmother, the late Mrs. James Wilkes, returned to Toronto, Thursday evening.

The Dufferin Rifles Chapter I. O. D. E. who were to have given a tea at the officers' quarters at the Armories, Feb. 10th, have indefinitely postponed the function, owing to the late lamented death of Mrs. David Gibson, who was a convener as well as a councillor of the order.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Tweney, having returned from their wedding trip, left on Wednesday evening for Moose Jaw, Sask., where they will reside.

Mrs. Harry Lee (nee Nina Butterworth) will receive for the first time since her marriage, on Thursday at her home, 152 Murray St. and afterwards on the second Thursday of each month.

Master Joseph Campbell of St. George, a pupil of the violin under Mr. W. G. Darwen, successfully passed his winter examination at the Toronto Conservatory of Music.

Mrs. C. G. Henshaw, of Vancouver, is at present in Edinburgh, where she is to appear before the Royal Scottish Geographical Society presenting one of her illustrated lectures dealing with Vancouver Island. During her visit there she is the guest of her relations, Sir Joseph and Lady Fayer.

Mrs. Glen Ellis was the hostess on Tuesday afternoon of a most enjoyable bridge of five tables in honor of her niece, Miss Jakes, who received with her. The rooms and table were attractive—a mass of spring flowers. In the tea room, Mrs. Chester Harris presided, Mrs. H. W. Fitton was prize-winner.

Mrs. C. F. Ramsay was the hostess Wednesday evening at an informal but merry little dance for young people, in honor of Miss Jakes of St. Louis. To the strains of lively music they tripped it with vim, enjoying the new steps with the enthusiasm of youth. Later on a dainty supper was served, after which home by moonlight, finished a delightful evening.

The late Mrs. James Wilkes, who passed away, Tuesday, represented the Christian gentleman of a past generation, with all the lofty ideals that are worth while. From a window one can see the lights out in the rooms here they shone for so long years. But the sunburst is on the further shore. We have said "Good Night," but some day, some here, hope to say "Good Morning."

It came as an appalling shock to her many friends the sudden call of Mrs. David Gibson. Always full of life and energy, of a cheerful disposition and winning personality. In the church, the home and various circles she was a bright and moving spirit. And the devoted mother has been taken from her husband and family at the age of thirty-seven years. The sorrowing sympathy of many, many friends and citizens are in spirit beside the bereaved family in the crushing trial that has befallen their happy home.

East evening after choir practice the members of Wellington Street choir were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Ham, Nelson street, where they were most hospitably entertained.

The Philathea Class of the Sunday School of the First Baptist Church, gave an "at home" at the residence of Mrs. Lister, 73 William St. on Thursday afternoon to the women of the church and congregation. Miss McLeod, a returned missionary, being the guest of honor. Mrs. Geo. Matthews, Mrs. L. Brown and Miss McLeod receiving with Mrs. Lister.

A much anticipated event in theatrical circles will be the appearance of Martin Harvey next Wednesday evening, in "The Only Way," a dramatized version of Dickens' "Tale of Two Cities." Most people have read it. Whatever opinion we may have of its literary qualities, there can be very little difference of view as to its world wide appeal. It is true to life, to type, and appeals to the average individual conviction, and he is in the tremendous majority and often knows instinctively what is right; he is humanity in the aggregate.

Bed Covers

Pretty covers for beds can be made of cretonne or heavy chintz, to be used instead of the time honored counterpane, says the New York Sun. The covers are to be cut at the corners so they will fit and lie flat and may be finished off with lace or wash edging. Use the same material elsewhere in the room, on dresser table, cushions—even to the curtains. Be sure to choose a well covered though dainty design.

The Reason

Mrs. Youngbridge—"Norah, I don't mind your entertaining your women friends in the kitchen evenings, but I must insist on their making less noise with their boisterous laughing." Norah—"Sure, mum, I'm sorry, but the ladies really couldn't help it. I was tellin' them how you tried to make a cake yesterday mornin'."—oston Transcript.

Duke of Connaught Attends Concert
His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught attended the first of the Mendelssohn Choir concerts in Massey Hall last night, when the left leg was used as the Royal Box, it being draped with royal blue velvet bearing the British coat of arms. Those included in the Royal party were: His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Lady Gibson, the Misses Gibson, Lord Spencer Compton, Sir Henry Bellart, Sir Edmund Walker, Lt.-Col. Farquhar, Hon. G. Boscawen, Major Caldwell, Captain Buller, Mr. Marvin Rathbun, A. D. C.

Lady Guy

It is difficult to realize that Mrs. Grace E. Denton (Lady Guy) has crossed the Great Divide. Her ability her bright personality, young of heart, and feeling. She had an attractive style in writing, all her own. Her many friends—as well as her shadow friends with sorrowing sympathy will miss her, not only as social editor, but also in her weekly Lady Guy's Page, in Saturday Night. The optimistic pen is laid aside, the beloved woman has gone home.
Warm summer sun,
Shine kinder here!
Warm southern wind,
Blow softer here!
Green and above,
Jade light, be light!
Good-night, dear heart,
Good-night! Good-night!

Brides and Young Girls Are Taught to Keep House, Learning Everything From Cooking to Making the Home Attractive

Could anything be more practical than a little three-room flat outfitted as a model home, the whole affair being used as a school for brides. St. George's Church, New York—picturesque old land-mark of Stuyvesant Square—has opened such a school, with two sessions a day.
The daughter of the late J. P. Morgan presented the school to St. George's Memorial House. It was intended for "children more than twelve years old" for it is the children of congested East Side neighborhoods who are the teachers of their parents when it comes to matters of household art.

The Lights Are On

Can we ever be sufficiently grateful to Hon. Adam Beck for illuminating our province, our city, our homes, our streets, bringing within range of the poor man's home cheap light; changing darkness to cheerfulness under the sway of the electric king's magic wand. A hero to be sure is Beck, who without fee or favor fought for the people's light with Herculean and unwearied efforts until it is a fact accomplished. What magic stories go with light! And here it is in lavish, golden showers, heartening and beaming on the dull and cheerless byways; making bright, squalid environs, and bringing within the reach of all, light, showers of light, furnished by the power of man's genius. From a window an arc light is in service, pouring its cheerful rays abroad, showing the beautiful outlines of the trees, making the street glorious with peeps of bright colors, shining from windows, aglow with electricity. When the moon hides her bright face, then the goddess of electricity appears as her understudy and all arranged with the object of serving the poor man as well as the rich. A name that will be revered by posterity will surely be Adam Beck.

Here's to the man of magic!
Here's to the man of power!
Here's to Beck, the Electric King!
Here's to his cause and power!
At the toast pass,
Drink all on masse—
Drink with Adam's ale in the glass!

School Proves Popular

Older girls heard of it, however, and clamored for admission to the classes. New little brides heard of it and, longing to start their married life aright, also clamored. Now, Miss McCutcheon says, the school threatens to outgrow its allotted space and spread all over the neighborhood. Plain, cheap fare, easy to cook and to digest, is the order of the model kitchen, and little Scotch Miss McCutcheon manages to put many a nugget of useful philosophy into her household lessons.

"Is it all appreciated?" she exclaimed, in reply to a query. "Well I should say it was. It's almost pathetic to see how eager the East Siders are to learn good living. They fairly drink in the lessons, and a trip through the neighborhood would soon prove to you that they profit by every word. I believe any bride who modeled her home after this three-room flat would be assured of a happy and prosperous married life!" New York Mail.

The First Silk Hat

January 15 should be kept as a feast by hatters, for on that date in 1797 John Hetherington emerged from his haberdashery shop in the Strand wearing the first silk hat ever seen in public. Hetherington was promptly surrounded by an astonished mob of such proportions that he was arrested and charged before the Lord Mayor with inciting to riot. The officer who arrested him testified that he "appeared upon the public highway wearing a tall structure which he called a silk hat, having a shiny lustre, and calculated to frighten timid people. Several women fainted at the unusual sight, while children screamed, dogs yelped and a boy was thrown down by the crowd, which gathered, and broke his right arm." The defendant was bound over in £500 to keep the peace.

Tango vs. Choir

Atlantic City, N.J.—Forced by members of St. Paul Episcopal Church to choose between the tango and her place in the church choir, Mrs. Lillian B. Abens, a tango teacher, quit the choir.
