DECORATION OF GRAVES BY ODDFELLOWS OF THE CITY WAS OBSERVED YESTERDAY

Parade of Five Hundred Loyal Lodge Men Despite Sweltering Heat; Deceased Brethren Buried Here Honored By Their Fellows

Headed by the Dufferin Rifles band and the Citizens' Band of Paris, the members of Gore, Harmony and Mohawk lodges, I.O.O.F. of this city, together with the visiting brethren from surrounding points, visited Greenwood and Mount Hope cemeteries yesterday afternoon and decorated the graves of the departed Oddfellows. In spite of the extremely warm weather, several hundred marched to the cemeteries, but the number was not so large as in former years on account of the number of members who are overseas. In the ranks as the procession filed down the streets from the lodge rooms could be seen several returned soldiers in khaki. The Rev. G. A. Woodside of Zion Presbyterian Church and the Rev. David Alexander of the Immanuel Baptist church, delivered brief orations in Mount Hope and Greenwood cemeteries respectively after the flowers had been placed on the graves.

The decoration committee consisted of Messrs. Charles Craddock, chairman, A. Watson, secretary, O. E. Ostrander, George Collington, W. Holmes, C. Masters, C. Page, W. Almas, Henry Dawson, L. Perry.

Rev. D. Alexander.
Rev. David Alexander's oration at Mount Hope Cemetery was listened to with much interest. The speaker based some fine thoughts and sentiments on the three-fold links of Oddfellows—viz. Friendship, Truth, and Love. A society which stood for these called men to the higher and greater things of life.

Great men of modern times had been inspired by friendships. Rhodes and Kitchener were both Empire Builders and were fast friends. Kitchener and Lord Roberts were also deeply attached to each other. K. of K. once said "Tell Roberts I want a billet under him, and if there is nothing else open I'll black his boots." We will never know what achievements, adventures and production of art and literature has been brought into existence because of the warm impulse of friendship. Friendship provides an outlet for the soul, but there was one supreme thing it did it helped us to retain our faith in human nature. Despite the many contradictions we find in men, the possession of a sincere and genuine friendship kept us from becoming harsh and cynical. Friendship also survived death. W. T. Stead maintained he lived in fellowship with his dead son. Stead was visionary but he was a gallant reformer, and in a practical Dr. Parker spoke to his wife after her death, so he declared. Be that as it may nearly all believed the soul immortal and our departed were not dead, except physically. Cecil Rhodes said "the man who says there is no God is a fool," again he declared, "the man who does not believe in a Supreme Being is no better than a dog." These were strong utterances from a man who gave all his wealth to the good of other men, and whose ambition was the glory of the British Empire.

Truth was like the sunshine. Like the solid earth life, the ample skies because God given and God created. Jesus was the Truth in human form. The Ex-Chancellor's utterance that Germany's signature to respect the neutrality of Belgium was a "scrap of paper" would haunt him to his death, and be a stigma upon that nation till the end of time. Thomas Carlyle wished to write his books as his God-fearing stone-mason-father had built houses, and walk blamelessly thru this world of shadows. We must heed the truth and be governed by its imperatives. Love was the greatest thing in the world. This ceremony to-day was a good lesson in the humanities. In these days of war the finer issues of life were apt to be lost sight of and undervalued. It did one good to step softly over the green sods which covered the ashes of the dead and lay a wreath thereon. Sydney Whitman on seeing an army of recruits walk along in silence and unheeded was moved and declared there must be something divine in man to volunteer such a death and service. It was love that did it. Love was the key to open all doors. We must keep our hearts right with God, and the lovers of all men and all nations. Christ on Calvary said, "Father forgive them." If we followed Him that same voice would one day say, "Well done good and faithful servant."

FIVE DIVISIONS OF ENEMY TROOPS CUT TO PIECES

Forty Fourth German Attack On Chemin-Des-Dames a Failure

FOE LOSSES HEAVY

Fourteenth Prussians Led Assault, And Were Mowed Down

London, July 30.—The correspondent of Reuters, with the French army in France, telegraphing on Friday night, says:

As a result of the Battle of Chemin-Des-Dames, which died down for a moment yesterday afternoon, in consequence of the exhaustion of the enemy, after raging practically without interruption for a week, the Germans obtained a precarious footing in a part of the French line below the crest, opposite the village of Ailles, while the French on the Craonne plateau recovered the whole of their original front except a small work in the north-eastern angle of Craonne plateau, which was utterly wrecked by bombardment, and is now untenable by either side.

Against these trivial advantages the enemy must set many thousands of casualties. Five German divisions participated in the fighting. Three of these need reorganizing before they can again be employed. The Germans grudge neither men nor munitions in order to ensure success. Undismayed by the failure of their onslaught on the Craonne plateau they threw two fresh divisions into a night attack on the Hurtelise-Labrelle front on Wednesday. The attack was made by the Fourteenth Prussian division, with the Third Bavarian division in support.

Three regiments of the Fourteenth division, namely the 16th, 56th and 57th, attacked side by side, in two waves each, three battalions strong. The third battalion of each regiment was formed in a first reserve. The battalions had been brought to maximum strength for the operations. Every man, including cooks and orderlies, had to go over with his company. All the officers, including the colonels, had to be present in the departure trenches. The first two waves were to pass the French front line and occupy the second line. The reserve battalions were intended to take possession of the first trench line. Still another division, the 51st Bavarian, was in readiness to relieve the shattered remnants of the 14th division in the French trenches as soon as the operation was completed.

For five minutes before the attack the trench mortar batteries below the crest maintained a fierce drum fire of bombs on the French front line. Despite the elaborate preparations of the Germans, the attack broke down. The greater part of the two-mile front was involved under the French fire and the assaulting companies either never reached the French front line or were unable to hold it. By Thursday evening nothing remained of the German gains except a few yards of trenches south of Ailles. This was the forty-fourth attack which the enemy had made on the Chemin-des-Dames.

SEEKING JAIL BREAKERS

Chatham, Ont., July 30.—Walter Dowers, white, and Herb Williams, colored, waiting trial on a serious charge preferred by a 15-year-old white girl; escaped from the country jail by placing a bench against the stone wall of the exercising yard; and are still at large.

The police are scouring the city and vicinity for traces of the fugitives and the police in many places in Western Ontario have been asked to be on the lookout. The escape was made following breakfast. During the temporary absence of Turnkey Gouy the men escaped from the corridor to the office, where they secured the keys and unlocked the door to the exercise yard. By means of long benches they scaled the 18-foot wall and were well on the way to freedom before their disappearance was discovered. A Mr. Simpson noticed them hiding in a wheat field near the C. P. R. bridge. Posses in that vicinity have been unable to locate them. The Brantford police were warned to maintain a sharp lookout for the offenders, but there has been no trace of them locally.

LEAFS TOOK ONE GAME SATUR

Divided Double Header 50 With Bisons, Heats Beaten

GRAYS AND BEARS

Providence and New Equal in Struggle For Pennant Honors

Toronto, July 29.—The Leafs took their own with Buffalo in Saturday's double-header, for they shut them out in the first by 4 to 0, dropped the second by 5 to 2. Luckily enough, one would almost imagine fate played a part in the game for Al. Justin, the new hander recently secured from Buffalo, had for his receiver "Lalonde, also a Buffalo product, they held their former team to five hits and no runs. A splendid victory for the Leafs, Jaynes who pitched the greater of the game had only one bad inning. Wycokoff started on the mound, he suffered from a serious vomiting before the first inning over and had to be taken out. He was in one run, was scored single and a triple. Jaynes ran the side, but eased up long in the third to let the Leafs get more.

"Bunny" Hearn, for the first time within the week failed to live up to the fans' expectations in second game. The first half safely stowed away, it was contended that Hearn would hand Toronto second, but he did not. "Bunny" yelled along with but fair success until the seventh, one run had been tallied on him in the fourth but at this stage the Leafs were down when Hearn weakened. Runs were scored and Leafs had a five-to-nothing score front of them. They desperately tempted a rally in the eighth, only saved themselves from a rout when they put two runs across the plate. Engel pitched consistently and tightened up in pinches.

At Newark.
Baltimore and Newark divided double-header to-day the Orioles ing the first game by 6 to 0, while the Bears slammed Hill and Ap for 21 hits in the second game and made a runaway race of it, winning by 18 to 2. Scores:

First game
Newark 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0

Batteries—Thormalen and Avoy; Smallwood, Wilkinson Egan.

Second game
Newark 2 0 1 1 2 2 7 3 18 21
Batteries—Hill, Appleton and Avoy; Schaerle; Ross and Egan.

In a heavy battling game made by wretched pitching on the part of the pitchers, used, Providence defeated Richmond this afternoon 11 to 9. The Grays batted Young the rubber in the fourth inning, Enright hard, sending ten over. Score:

Providence 0 0 0 1 0 1 0 0 0 11 10
Richmond 5 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 3 3 10
Batteries—Reault, Schellen and Mayer; McNeil; Young, Enr and Koehler.

At Montreal.
Montreal divided to-day's double header with Rochester losing first game by 8 to 1, and winning the second which only went seven innings by agreement, by 6 to 5.

First affair was a slugger and Duffey's hitting in the second game was responsible for the victory.

Scores:
First game
Rochester 0 0 1 2 1 0 2 0 11 8 15
Montreal 2 0 1 1 0 0 1 1 0 3 10

Second game
Rochester 0 0 0 0 1 1 3 0 3 8 10
Montreal 1 0 3 0 1 1 1 0 6 10

Batteries—Loiz and Wendell; Duffey and Madden.
St. Paul, Minn., Bases Full.
Providence, July 28.—The Grays defeated Richmond to-day by score of 6 to 2 and 3 to 1. Richmond the services of its manager, C. Knabe, in the first inning of opening game, he being chased by the clubhouse for protesting against Umpire McBride reversing a decision. Peters and Schultz were the winning hurlers, and both twirled good ball. Brannard, the former Giant star, with the bases filled in the third, spoiling the Grays' chances for score in this round.
