Rates Are Too High

A gentleman who, with his wife, in Dawson on a pleasure trip, says that he is delighted with the country but that transportation companies charge too much for their acommodations: The gentleman has transportation to Whitehorse but paid $44 for board and berths up on the steamer for himself and wife, He says that $8 per day for one person's eating and sleeping is outrageous and that people who can afford summer travel will prefer going to Europe to coming to Dawson as long as rates are as they are.

The Guest Turned.

Once when dining quite by chance with Dr. Creighton, the late bishe of London, at a certain club Lord Rosebery remarked: "Ab, n.y lord p. what a musance this dining is ! Two things I absolutely dread -a long dinner and long sermon. Ithink that a sermon and a dinner, however good either may be, ought never to last more than a quarter of an hour or twenty minutes at the "Well, well," said Dr. Creighton "could we not arrange matters this way, my lord? Knock, 8th regiments, C. say, ten minutes of the sermon and Halifak tomorrow, put it on to the dinner."—"Mex. of
