Next meeting in Temperance Hall Thursday, April 23d, at 3.30 p. m. The meetings are always open to any who wish to become members.

The following extracts are taken from a lecture recently delivered in Tremont Temple, Boston, by John G. Woolly, the famous temperance orator:

I was riding in the train yesterday on my way home. The train ran over a little boy. Crushed and mangled his little body lay opposite the window of the car in which I was riding, and I exclaimed when I saw the bleeding body, "Why, we have run over a boy!" Two women were sitting behind me. One covered her face with her hands and cried, "Oh, mercy! don't tell me, I don't want to hear about it. I wouldn't look at him for the world." The other woman, with white lips and pallid face, touched me gently on the shoulder and said to me, "Would you please find out if there is anything that can be done?" One was a woman who pitied the boy, to be sure, but by the impulse of humankind covered her eyes and wouldn't look at him for the world. She would have been glad to have done some kind act; perhaps she would have liked to have had her carriage take the body away, but she drew the line at looking at the wounds and taking the meaning of it all into her heart.

She was an excellent horse-woman, and as we were burrying through the town, a little boy came near being run over by our team. And what did she do? I know her well, and I believe she is an tender-hearted woman as you will find in a year's search, and what did she do? She bit the horse with the whip and shut her eyes. She was going to keep from seeing it all. Oh, so unwilling to see the wretchedness of the world.

I was in a railroad wreck not long ago on Sunday, for I have to travel sometimes on Sunday, when I believe that the necessities of men and the work of the Lord demand it. The train in which I was wrecked, a carload of young men on an excursion, and many were killed and wounded. The dead were covered up and put in racks along the ground, their faces covered with a bit of canvas. People were there looking for their friends. Presently I saw a man and his wife, who had lost two children—for some were looking for children—and the mother sickened at the sight,—and that was no wonder for we men were sickened by what we saw—and she sat down at a little distance, while her husband searched. He went from one dead body to another and looked into the face of the dead and covered it again after he saw that the face was not the one he was searching for, but after a little while he dropped upon his knees beside a ghastly mangled form, killed by the bursting of the boiler, and it was horrible to look upon, the eyes staring from the sockets, the lips turned to the bone. The father kissed the ghastly face, the open eyes of the dead, and calling to me said, "Oh, my wife, here is Albert, come." And she came and dropped down upon her knees on the other side and would have arms about the stiffened form, tried to drag it up to her bosom, talking to the ghastly corpse of the boy.

Could you have done that? No, no, but it was her boy, you know, her own child, she could take it all in, and she could touch with her own bare hands and lips the wounds of her dead. Oh! get that lesson. As Jesus Christ has healed you, given Himself for you, so do you get the fine eyesight that He has. Go your way watching for opportunities to do a kind act. There is many a man going down to hell with set teeth and clenched hands, who might be saved if some good man would go to him, without any undue excitement whatever, and, touching him on the shoulder like a man, say, "Don't you want to be the man you need to be? Don't you want to be the man you ought to be? Rise up and let me help you. I cannot give you a privilege to do it." But not many are saved, because you are depending upon Francis Murphy to do the saving, or the preacher or the missionaries. There are too many drunkards and not enough missionaries of the right sort. And the drunkards will not be saved until you, by the help of the touch of the hand, are doing your own religious, charitable, benevolent work, are going out into the highways of the city and the country and helping these men and women in the WARNING!

TO PIANO AND ORGAN PURCHASERS! The great popularity of the "BELL" PIANOS and ORGANS has created much jealousy among certain Piano-dealers. Bear in mind that the latest improvements are not owned by and cannot be secured from any firm in Nova Scotia but the

In Red and Grey Polished Granite and Marble. Strictly first-class Work. GRIFFIN & KELTIE, 323 BARRINGTON ST., HALIFAX.

Under false colours. Some Mackay stitched shoes are made to imitate Goodyear W.C.L. They have a "dummy welt" on the outer edge of the sole, and a false insole covering the stitches under the foot. But no matter how skillful the deception to the eye, the effect upon the feet soon shows it up.

Any shoe stitched under the foot must form hard and callous spots on it, as soon as the leather wears away and the stitches form elevations under pressure. The sole of the Goodyear Welted "Slater Shoe" is sewn to a strip of leather outside the shoe—not a stitch or peg being under the foot. Each pair remains six days on the last to take the stretch out of the leather, moulding it to keep the niceties which constitute fit and comfort. You'll know that it's genuine Goodyear Welt if stamped on the sole with the "Slater Shoe" name and price, $3, $4, or $5. A tag on each pair tells the leather it is made of—the wear it will give.

AGENTS. For sale by C. H. Borden, sole agent for Wolfville.

Granby Rubbers

It is no wonder that rubbers, which are not the same shape as the foot, should be uncomfortable. It costs money to employ skilled pattern makers but the result is a satisfactory fit. Each year new patterns are added, to fit all the latest shoe-shapes, and Granby Rubbers are always "up-to-date."

Scraps for Odd Moments.

As every thread of gold is valuable so every minute of time.—Mason. He is the best who wins the most splendid victories by the retrieval of mistakes, by beginning ably, and by mistakes. Orange victory out of mistakes.—J. W. Robertson.

Ask for Minards and take no other. But papa, you have no idea how he loves me. He is willing to die for me this minute. Well, said the old man, as he scratched his head, thoughtfully. I don't know as I have any objection to that. I was afraid he wanted to marry.

Keep Minards Liniment in the House. Mrs De Form—Now, that baby is three weeks old, John, we must send out his cards to let folks know that the dear little fellow has arrived. John (as the baby yells) Ah, my dear, don't you think he'll make the announcement himself?

Minards Liniment the lumberman's Friend. When the Duke of Monmouth was executed in the reign of James II for treason, his Duchess ordered every oak in the park to be cut on the fatal morning. The new growth, belonging to Lord Ebury, is one of the finest forests in Britain.

Minards Liniment is Used by Physicians. Bridget—Yeer snigger him wid me down at that shop. Oh saw a most lovely sight. Jane—What was it? "Why, was of the kind dropped about two dozen plates on smashed them all 't bits. It made me wish Oh was a man an' wracked in a chain shop."

Why was out with coughing, at night, when Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will relieve and cure! During the hearing of a case before Mr Justice Day, the following dialogue took place: Counsel, at the end of a long speech. Then, my lord, comes the question of bags; they might have been full bags, or half full bags; or again they might have been empty bags. Judge—Or they might have been windbags.

Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer has restored gray hair to its original color and prevented baldness in thousands of cases. It will do so to you. Aged Husband—You are going to ruin me with your extravagance. You don't need that cap any more than a cat needs two tails. How often have I told you never to buy anything because it is cheap? Young Wife (with the air of one who has got the better of the argument)—But it was not cheap. It cost fifty dollars.

He's a very enterprising young man, remarked the elderly gentleman; very pushing and alert. He belongs to the rising generation. Indeed! Miss Cayenne. No, from his manner I should not have hesitated about concluding that the rising generation belonged to him.

The latest results of pharmaceutical science and the best modern appliances are available of Dr. J. C. Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Hence, though half-a-century in existence as a medicine, it is fully abreast of the age in all that goes to make it the standard blood-purifier.

The story is told that Daniel Webster, when on his way by stage coach to Washington once, was looked upon with suspicion by his travelling companions. Finally one of the latter tapped him on the knee and said: How far are you going? I am going to Washington, answered Webster.

Are you a merchant? I continued the inquiry. No; I am a senator, replied Webster. Well, well! exclaimed the other, holding out his hand. I am relieved. We feared you might be a highwayman.

STAFFORD, 4th Aug, 1893. Messrs G. C. RICHARDS & Co, GENTLEMEN—My neighbor's boy, 4 years old, fell into a tub of boiling water, and got scalded fearfully. A few days later his legs swelled to three times their natural size and broke out in running sores. His parents could get nothing to help him till I recommended MINARD'S LINIMENT, which, after using two bottles, completely cured him, and I know of several other cases around here almost remarkably cured by the same Liniment, and I can truly say I never handled a medicine which has had as good a sale or given such universal satisfaction.

M. HINCH, General Merchant.

A Sunday-school superintendent at the close of an address on the creation, which he was sure he had kept within the comprehension of the least intelligent of the scholars, suddenly invited questions. A tiny boy with a white, eager face and large brow, at once held up his hand. "Please, sir, why was Adam never a baby?"

The superintendent coughed in some doubt as to what answer to give, but a little girl of 9, the eldest of several brothers and sisters came promptly to his aid. "Please, sir," she said smartly, "there was nobody to use him!"

Gravel in the Bladder. Ured Eighteen Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills—The Stone Dissolved and Removed—Knew of Others Cured.

Shelburne, Mar. 29 (Special)—Mr John McGill, known locally as well as far and near, as physical giant and glorying in his strength came to be a great sufferer and tells his cure as follows:— "I do not hesitate to speak of Dodd's Kidney Pills or anything else exactly as I find them. If a medicine cures me I think it will cure others why not say so?"

It is true I had been suffering for some time with bladder trouble and burning of a urine made in a similar case by Dodd's Kidney Pills, I commenced using them.

In all I have used eighteen boxes and they have dissolved the stone and have entirely cured me of any sign of such difficulty. If a medicine cures me I think it will cure others why not say so?"
