take chances. From every point of yiew Royal Household Flour is more economical than any other. It produes more loaves to the barrel. It is richest in food value. It is more uniform. It is best for Pastry as well as Bread and yields more backed product in either bread or pastry than any other flour.

True Household

Economy

MOTHERS, we owe it as a duty to our husbands and families to take good care of them.

We all want, of course, to have our loved ones cheerful and comfortable. -

Our dominant part is to give them the very best that we can make or bake. But sometimes we are tempted to save a few pennies in food and think that in so doing we are economising. But is it so? Is this the kind of economy that is wise and profitable? Is it doing our full duty to our loved ones?

Royal Household Flour

We wouldn't think of buying the lowest priced eggs in the market just for the sake of conomy. We would feel that because they were cheap they would be good eggs to avoid. The low price would give us a supicion of their freshness and quality. But when it comes to flour.

But when it comes to flour, for example, we may be tempted to buy the second best instead of the best because of the few pennies difference in price. We may think that
