

Italy, Austria, and Prussia, and whenever the Prince President is disposed to make war, he will not be wanting in pretence for the glory and aggrandizement of France.

By telegraphic dispatch we learn that an attempt on the life of the Queen of Spain was made on the 2nd inst., which we believe was the day appointed for her to go out and take her first airing to the church of Atocha, to be cheered after her appearance. Her Majesty was struck on the shoulder by a pistol shot, but at present the wound is reported to be not dangerous.

Since our last we have fresh news from the Cape to the 29th December. Nothing decisive had taken place which would determine the issue of the war. Sir H. Smith has not moved from King William's town for the last ten months, and as we have frequently said, has been virtually a prisoner, hemmed in by Kaffirs, who unmolested till their fields and gardens in sight of the garrison. It is said that the chief Svelo, has made overtures to ascertain upon what terms he may come in and surrender.

LONDON, FEBRUARY 6.—In the House of Lords yesterday the Lord Chancellor, in reply to a question from Lord Lyndhurst, stated that the Bill for the reform of the Court Chancery would embrace only the proceedings, and not the jurisdiction, of that tribunal.

The Duke of Wellington, introducing the subject of the Kaffir war, expressed his approbation of the operations undertaken by Sir H. Smith in the conduct of the war there, but said his gallant friend had fallen into an error just as others had done before him. The operations against the Kaffirs had to be carried on by the occupation of extensive regions of jungle, or bush land, in reality, the thickest wood that could be found anywhere. The Kaffirs retired to their fastnesses with the plunder, and there they existed; they there attacked their assailants at great odds, and raised them great loss.

CHATHAM, Feb. 2.—Volunteering has opened in Chatham barracks for the depot of the Rifle Brigade, the 97th and 98th regiments, and uprisers of three hundred have offered for the home regiments. It is expected that the volunteering will be general in Chatham. Several recruiting parties have recently been sent to different localities in England and Ireland.

Four regiments of the Line will, in all probability be selected as rifle corps, and the light companies of all regiments are also to be armed with the rifle—a necessary measure, as all our rifle corps are now in India; the Cape, and Canada.

PARIS, FEBRUARY 4.—The boldness of the measures of the Government astonishes every eye, and it is to be feared that, if continued, they will some time or other produce a catastrophe.

DESPOTISM IN FRANCE. The London Examiner contains a curious analysis of the vote of 7,439,915 in favor of the coup d'etat. By aid of the census returns, it is shown that the greatest possible number inserted as electors capable of voting was only 272,569 beyond the number who are asserted to have voted, and hence the fictitious character of the returns is brought almost to absolute demonstration.

UNITED STATES. The Alabama Senate have passed a bill prohibiting the introduction of slaves into that State for sale.

The Androsquin and Kenesee Railroad, refuse to carry an equal number of passengers of color.

NEW YORK, FEB. 6.—A memorial in the course of signature in this city, addressed to the senate and house of representatives of the United States, praying that they will oppose all interference with foreign powers, as being prejudicial to the best interests of the United States.

GEORGETOWN ELECTION.

The members of the Administration and their supporters have constantly been holding out, that the public of P. E. Island were so satisfied with them and their actings, sayings and doings, that in every vacancy in the Representation, they had nothing to do but to present one of their own partisans at the hustings and his election was certain. The defeat at Georgetown has served to open their eyes a little, and ought to convince them, that they are not so firmly fixed in their places, whether of honor or emolument, as they have hitherto fancied themselves. The issue of the late contest is emphatically a defeat. The member whose early and lamented death caused the vacancy, was one of their own majority. The battle had been previously fought; and though they had been on that occasion defeated, it was by a single vote, and they complained that unfair advantage had been taken of them.

On the 29th, then, the contest took place: one entirely of principle, and the result has been, as we have seen, as complete a triumph as could have been wished for. The people of Georgetown are entitled to the highest credit; they have proved that they are well aware of the value of their privileges as electors, and that they know how to use them.

Slightly however, that numerous arrivals in the country, and a large transportation of a great number of these arrested scarcely ever a of a dungan. Mr. Cabot, the sent to England. In the high-grain system of espionage the interference of the Prefect of the great party of the force, to develop a state of social tranquillizing than even that which is Fouché.

A London paper of the 14th ult. contains the following:— We have had letters from the Var—that important department, of which the population turned out against Louis Napoleon, and which the soldiers have laid waste by fire and sword beyond any cruelties known in the revolution, or even in the dragonades of Louis XIV. The commune or parish of Luc, in the Var, comprised 1100 electors, that is, males above 20. Of these 1100, certainly 1000 turned out against Louis Napoleon; the result has been, that upwards of 500 have been dragged off from prison to prison, some shot, some to be transported. Upwards of 300 are fugitives hiding in the surrounding woods and parishes. Knowing this, judge of the surprise of every one, by learning from the official returns, that of the 1100 electors of Luc, 650 voted for the full powers demanded by Louis Napoleon.
